End Nuclear Weapons, Next Red Surprise!

Capital Is Expecting News Soon

Moscow Awaiting Propaganda Check

WASHINGTON (AP)—Top officials predicted today that Russia would follow up its lone wolf ban on atomic-hydrogen tests by proclaiming an end to production of nuclear weapons.

They reported continuing diplomatic signs the Kremlin would spring this as a second surprise on the West within a matter of a few weeks.

Awaiting Reaction

Moscow probably already has made the decision, they said, in line with a public hint to that effect which Soviet Premier Khrushchev put out in Moscow nearly three weeks ago. But they said the Kremlin probably is deliberately delaying an announcement until Moscow has reaped propaganda value from the single-handed test ban announced yesterday.

These authorities said a Soviet pledge to halt output of atomic-hydrogen bombs would be even more difficult for the West to check than an unsupervised suspension of testing.

Test Series Over

Russia, which has just completed an extensive series of nuclear tests, announced no date for the start of its ban. It also left the way open to resume the tests after the first of a series of United States long has planned this spring and summer in the Pacific testing grounds.

U. S. officials said this country's tests will go forward as scheduled.

Responsible officials in discussing the Soviet maneuvers said a network of allied detection stations on the rim of Russia could provide a reasonable check on whether Russia is cheating on a test ban.

But they said verifying a halt in atomic production would be immeasurably more difficult because this could not be detected from the outside. Reliable, unbiased inspectors would be needed inside Soviet arms plants to vouch for any end to production.

Coincides With Reports

The Soviet announcement coincided with some reports that the Atomic Energy Commission was opposed to any U. S. action to halt tests voluntarily even after the current testing series ends this summer.

U. S. Stand

Meanwhile, government authorities insisted that the Eisenhower administration has not backed down in its demand that a summit conference must be preceded by lower level diplomatic talks which ease differences on existing problems.

They contended it was incorrect to draw this interpretation from the American-British-French note to the Kremlin yesterday, which calls for talks on an ambassador's level in the second half of this month.

These diplomats, it was said, would "examine the position" of East-West governments on major issues and would seek "by general discussion" to bring "prospects of agreement."

Alderman Mayes For Consolidation

Alderman Hirschell Mayes (R) First Ward, the first councilman to make recent comment on the local school consolidation proposal, in a note to The Freeman today, says he's all for it.

Mayes said he has been reading, with interest, the pro and con on consolidation, and several persons "called me wanting to know how I felt about it." He wrote,

"It would seem to me that the proof of the pudding is in the eating. When I read that some ten cities in the state have found Consolidation to be the answer, that's good enough for me."

When those in charge of our educational program, and they are supposed to know, believe in this I recommend we back them up. I am going to vote in favor of Consolidation on April 2, 1958."

Propaganda Victory Is Seen in Test Maneuver

LONDON (AP)—The Soviet Union today appeared to have scored a considerable initial propaganda victory in Europe and Asia with its announcement it is suspending test explosions of nuclear weapons.

Comment Cautious

West European officials generally did not go along, at least publicly, with the U. S. State Department claim that the suspension was meaningless because there was no provision for international inspection. Comment was cautious. But Britain ruled out any idea that it would call off the tests it plans to start soon, and several leading papers urged the Western allies to treat the Russian move with caution.

The Communist press hailed the announcement to the Supreme Soviet yesterday. The East German Radio said the "Western powers will have to join the Russian move."

London Press View

London's Conservative Daily Mail said it was crystal clear that "Soviet Russia has scored another brilliant propaganda victory." But the paper counseled the Western powers not to be panicked into stopping the testing and development of missiles.

The Times of London warned that the ban "will be taken by many peoples—far too simply, but very genuinely—as a step toward averting nuclear disaster if only the Western powers follow suit."

London's Liberal News Chronicle also said the impact of the Soviet announcement on uncommitted nations would be tremendous. It joined the pro-Labor Daily Mirror in calling for a similar British suspension.

Effect Far-Reaching

In West Germany, the influential Independent Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung called the Soviet announcement an announcement of "far-reaching psychological value" which had "put America and Britain in an awkward position."

An Asian diplomat at the U. N. said the Russians had "scored a tremendous propaganda victory in our part of the world."

Moscow Radio disputed the American claim that the Soviets might cheat on their ban with secret explosions.

"Nuclear explosions cannot be hidden now," it asserted. "Not a single one has been hidden so far."

Won't Change Idea

The broadcast accused the State Department of "trying to make

Ave Calls for Apology

Says Keating Remark Insults Workers

ALBANY (AP)—Gov. Harriman wants Rep. Kenneth Keating to apologize for remarks Harriman maintains are "an insult to every employee of the State Department of Public Works."

The Democratic governor, replying to a charge by the Rochester Republican that the state government is lagging in road-building programs, said yesterday Keating "has either circulated a deliberate falsehood or he has no idea of what is going on" in the highway program.

Loud Albany Wailing

Keating said in Washington Sunday that some governors were

"weeping and wailing" about a so-called lack of federal funds for public works.

"Some of the loudest wailing," he said, was coming from the executive mansion in Albany.

Keating, mentioned as a possible candidate for the U. S. Senate or the GOP nomination to run against Harriman for governor next fall, said that New York had more than 162 million dollars that could be used for highway construction, but that only 32 million of it was being processed in Washington for project requests.

"That means," he said, "that 130 million of that 162 million dollars is not being used because the

Conservatives Pile Up Record Canadian Edge

TORONTO (AP)—Canada was amazed today by Prime Minister John Diefenbaker's political triumph which shattered the opposition in Parliament and placed his Conservative Party in complete command with the biggest majority in history.

Yesterday's general election—the country's second in 10 months—gave the Conservatives 209 of the 265 seats in the House of Commons for a new record.

The election made history in these other ways:

It reduced the once powerful Liberal Party to 47 seats, the smallest number ever. It had 106 before the election.

It sent the leader of the Socialist Co-operative Commonwealth Federation, M. J. Coldwell, to defeat and reduced the CCF house membership from 26 to 8.

One district was still out.

The election completely eliminated the Social Credit Party from Commons, including its leader, Solon Low. Social Credit had 19 members in the previous Parliament.

With 80 per cent of Commons to back his policies, the 62-year-old Prime Minister will be in a powerful position to rule as his party will for the next five years.

To Recall Parliament

The largest number of members any party ever had before was the 190 seats the Liberals won in 1949.

He's Not Candidate

A major public works program, he said, "would do little to check the recession this year, but would sharply increase spending next year and the year after that when the economy may well be experiencing inflationary pressures."

Rockefeller, considered leading potential Republican candidate for governor of New York or for U. S. senator, told a reporter: "I'm not a candidate."

He turned aside questions along those lines by saying: "The real question is how to get the unemployed into gainful employment. That's what I'm here to talk about."

Prospect Is Inflation

He said in his speech that despite the current recession the "prospect for the future is one of inflation."

"When we add everything up," he said, "there are clearly foreseeable demands upon our economy."

President And Party Men Talk Special Message Due in Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower talked over with Republican congressional leaders today his reorganization plan for the Defense Department. It is reported to call for strengthened authority for the secretary of defense and the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

The GOP leaders said after their regular weekly meeting with Eisenhower that the plan had been discussed, but would not give any details of it.

Knowland Likes Plan

Sen. Knowland of California did say he considers the plan "a considerable improvement over the present situation."

James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, said Eisenhower still hopes to send Congress a special message on the reorganization before the legislators begin a 10-day Easter recess Thursday.

Needs More Work

Hagerty added, however, that some work remains to be done on that message. He indicated it might not go to Congress until after the recess.

Secretary of Defense McElroy supervised preparation of the plan, ordered as one means of speeding this nation's defenses after Russia surprised the world by sending two earth satellites aloft last fall.

Council Gets Draft

McElroy presented a draft of the plan last week to the National Security Council.

Pentagon officials said that even after the McElroy presentation, changes in the plan may have been made by the President and his intimate advisers.

The recommendations, couched in general terms, will be sent to Congress and made public before Congress starts its Easter recess Thursday. Formal legislative recommendations will go to Capitol Hill after Congress returns April 14.

Meets Some Opposition

Although the Pentagon reorganization plan fell short of the full military unification demanded by some critics of the present system, it had already met anticipatory resistance from some powerful congressmen.

Bills opposing further power concentration have been filed by Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) of the House Armed Services Committee; Rep. Arends (R-Ill.), House minority whip; Sen. Mansfield (D-Mont.) assistant Senate majority leader; and Sen. Bridges (R-Neb.), chairman of the Senate GOP Policy Committee.

Power for Secretary

The administration plan is known to include provisions that would greatly strengthen the direct authority of the defense secretary and reduce the administrative authority of the secretaries of the three military services.

The plan would achieve this by asking Congress to vote the bulk of military appropriations to the defense secretary and give him authority to transfer funds from one service or project to another.

The administration plan would also strengthen the hand of the chairman of the Joint Chiefs by making him the responsible head of the 200-man joint staff, which now works for all members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Tougher Point System Is In Effect for Car Drivers

ALBANY (AP)—The State Motor Vehicle Bureau's new, tougher point system, designed to remove persistent violators from the road, went into effect today.

The revised system gives greater weight to moving violations. Violators will accumulate points faster and become liable to lose their licenses sooner.

The revised system increases from two points to three points convictions for speeding or reckless driving.

These offenses were boosted from one to two points: running through a red light or stop sign, passing a stopped school bus, failing to yield right of way, failing to signal, crossing a double line or driving an unregistered car. Lesser offenses will count 1½ or one point.

A motorist will be summoned to a hearing if he accumulates eight points in two years, 10 in three years or 12 in four years. His license may be suspended or revoked.

Tompkins Is Off Schedule Here For St. John Talk

The special prosecutor appointed to handle alleged kick-back cases in Ulster County has not arrived here by Freeman press time.

Bernard Tompkins, former senator from Queens County, was scheduled for an afternoon conference with District Attorney Howard C. St. John.

Tompkins was appointed March 24 to supersede St. John in prosecuting the kickback cases, but the district attorney is to continue his routine duties otherwise.

Attorney General Louis J. Lefkowitz made the appointment on direction of Governor Averell Harriman.

Arthur L. Reuter, acting state investigation commissioner, alleges he uncovered irregularities in a probe he made of Ulster and 10 other counties, all Republican.

The Ulster County January grand jury has been conducting a probe into the alleged "kickback" activities among town superintendents of highways involving road oil contracts. That grand jury is still in session and is due to report to the Supreme Court again on April 7 at noon.

Whether the January Grand Jury, which has been investigating the "kickback" charges for several weeks, will be continued beyond next Monday will be decided after Tompkins arrives. The March Grand Jury, which was summoned for the March term of Supreme Court, is still being held under order of the court for future use if necessary.

Fawzi, Dag To Confer On Border

CAIRO — Foreign Minister Mahmoud Fawzi today arranged to fly to Switzerland to meet U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld. It was reported Fawzi would take up what the United Arab Republic calls Israeli aggression on the Syrian border.

The U. A. R. of Syria and Egypt yesterday requested an extraordinary meeting of the U. N. Security Council to investigate two days of tank and artillery exchanges near the Lake Huleh reclamation project on the Syrian-Israeli border.

A foreign office spokesman said Fawzi would meet Hammarskjöld in Zurich tomorrow. The Middle East news agency said the meeting would be in connection with the frontier outbreaks of yesterday and the day before.

Egyptians expressed fears that the clashes were part of a general Israeli plan to take over all demilitarized zones along her border. Fawzi also called in the ambassadors of the United States, Russia and Red China this morning.

He was presumed he was informing them of the border situation. The two hour clash yesterday stopped after two cease-fire orders by the U. N. Armistice Commission. Each side accused the other of starting the shooting.

Although each nation claimed the other lost heavily, the Israeli said one of their settlers was killed and three wounded, while the Arabs said two of their officers were killed.

Information Director Saad Afra said the U. A. R. had called for a meeting of the Security Council to consider "a violation of the truce agreement and a danger to peace." A Cairo spokesman had warned earlier that the joint forces of Syria and Egypt would not stand idly by in the face of aggression.

Steps Are Taken For Survey on Ulster College

Steps were taken by the Citizens' Advisory Committee at a meeting Monday night to make a survey and prepare a report relating to a Community College for Ulster County.

Harry Rigby Jr., chairman of the Advisory Committee recently held in Albany between the official Community College Committee of the Ulster County Board of Supervisors with Lawrence L. Jarvie, Dean of the University of the State of New York. This conference was also attended by Rigby and Albert Kurdt, manager of the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce, members of the advisory committee.

The report was requested by Dean Jarvis and will include the results of a survey of potential students in an area covering all of Ulster County and parts of four other counties, namely, Dutchess, Columbia, Greene and Delaware, for the next 12 years. It will also include a pattern of present college attendance of recent high school graduates.

The advisory committee also invited all citizens to suggest possible temporary or permanent quarters for a Community College. Based on the area of influence and the location of Community Colleges already established, it was pointed out that a location in the northeastern portion of Ulster County would probably meet with the greatest support from the Board of Regents and the State University.

SCHENECTADY — Police Chief William F. Brandt, who has been under fire at hearings on gambling conditions in the city, retired today.

Deputy Chief Anthony F. Capola took charge of the department pending appointment of a new chief by City Manager Arthur Gleesing.

Brandt could not be reached for comment immediately. The police pension board approved Brandt's application for a pension, which will amount to about $4,600 a year for life. Blessing said the action was "routine."

Brandt joined the force Nov. 30, 1924, and was appointed chief on April 6, 1955, after serving 16 years as deputy chief.

The body of 4-year-old Franklin Roberts Jr. of Rensselaer was recovered yesterday.

The boy and his father, Franklin Roberts Sr., set out Saturday morning with a new canoe. They planned to paddle down the creek from Middleburgh to Fort Hunter, a distance of about 40 miles, and to camp along the way.

The two were reported missing yesterday morning after Roberts failed to call a sister who was to have met them at Fort Hunter.

State police found the child's body, clad in a red life jacket, in an eddy at Burtonsville, on the Schenectady-Montgomery County line.

The partially submerged canoe was found about half a mile away. The boy and his father apparently had traveled about 20 miles in the canoe, which Roberts purchased about two weeks ago.

State police theorized that the canoe capsized in treacherous rapids about a mile south of Burtonsville.

Roberts was employed part-time by a trucking company.

Urge All to Vote Wednesday

Kingston Ministers Are For Consolidation Plan

The Kingston Ministerial Association, at a regular meeting held at the Ponckhockie Congregational Church, Thursday, instructed the Social Action Committee to make an united pronouncement for the ministers calling upon their people to vote in Wednesday's election and to support the Greater Kingston Area Consolidation program for the public schools.

The Rev. J. Dean Dykstra, pastor of the Fair Street Reformed Church, reporting for the committee of clergymen said:

"As pastors and ministers of the Kingston churches, it seemed to us necessary to take a stand on this matter as a moral issue since so much that has been written and said has attempted to deal with the proposal as an economic consideration solely."

When public statements seem to imply that our school teachers are the really overpaid workers in our society, or that for some reason we cannot afford the educational standards and opportunities required for intelligent American citizenship, we feel it must be brought to our attention that the Church in America has always called on the people to support with their interest and their means the highest standards in public education and that in any consideration it is the prime responsibility of all our citizens to provide the best possible education for the community's children.

"Under the circumstances," the Rev. Mr. Dykstra concluded, "we feel that the consolidation plan represents this position."

Billboard Control Controversy Likely

WASHINGTON —The fate of billboard control along the nation's 41,000-mile superhighway system hangs in the balance today as Senate-House conferees try to work out agreement on a road construction speed-up measure.

The billboard regulation section, inserted in the Senate by a 47-41 vote, appears likely to provide the biggest controversy in the conference. The House measure contains no such provision.

There is not much dispute on provisions to pump more federal funds into road-building and accelerating present programs as a means to fight the economic recession.

Both Senate and House conferees said in advance of their first session that they expected quick agreement.

Leary suggested a long-term contract which he said would stabilize the economy.

Leaves From Boyle's Notebook

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Science at last has done something positive for single girls anxious to pick the right kind of husband.

How can a sincere girl be sure what kind of a personality a man has? It's very simple. All she has to do is find out whether he smokes or not—and how much.

For a recent scientific study of some Harvard students disclosed an interesting thing about the habit of smoking. It seems to divide the sheep and the goats.

The study showed that heavy smokers have peppy personalities. They are independent, restless, and if there is a war on they want to grab a gun and go right into combat. But this same aggressiveness and independence makes them something of a problem in the home. They have a lot of marital troubles.

Nonsmokers, on the other hand, tend to have porridge personalities, the survey found. They are bland as skim milk and dependable as a time clock. If there is a war they prefer to be the man behind the man at the front. They are more likely to make safe, obedient husbands.

Simple Guide

Assuming that any study of Harvard men is also true of the male population generally (an assumption any Yale man would resent), a girl now has a simple easy guide for picking the kind of mate she wants. All she has to do is artfully open a pack of cigarettes and hand it to the potential victim.

If he draws back with a look of utter horror on his face, she knows that here is a guy who will not only carry out the garbage for her uncomplainingly all his life. He will probably also hang the living room drapes for her, and perhaps even sew them himself.

If he accepts a cigarette, takes a tentative puff and turns green, she knows about him, too. He will always bring his paycheck home in his mouth, have a peaceful basement hobby, and hold the umbrella over her head when it rains—and let his own head get wet.

Rosendale

ROSENDALE—The regular monthly meeting of the village board of trustees will be held in the village hall, Main Street, Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock.

The board of trustees requests that all vouchers for payment by the village be in the hands of the village clerk at least twenty-four hours prior to the meeting. Otherwise, such vouchers will be paid following the next monthly meeting.

A food sale, sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Tillson Volunteer Fire Company, will be held Friday, April 4 at the Tillson firehall in the afternoon. Home-made clam chowder will be on sale in addition to the usual items at these sales. The public is invited.

On April 12, a pot luck supper for members and guests will be held at the firehall. Entertainment to follow the supper has been arranged, and all members are cordially invited to attend. The supper will start at 6:30 p. m.

The final Lenten season weekly food sale at the Rosendale Reformed Church will be held Thursday at 10 a. m. Home-made clam chowder will be offered for sale.

Clam chowder may be ordered in advance by calling the parsonage of the Rev. Cuyler Thayer.

Self-Confidence

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—A news cameraman snapping pictures of a class of small fry at a Little Rock school encountered one boy who questioned him critically on each step in photographic procedure. Finally the cameraman told the youngster jokingly: "You know quite a bit about cameras—probably more than I." The child replied seriously: "Yeah, I do."

Difficult to Tell

But if he snatches the pack, smokes them all himself, then tries to borrow money from her to buy another pack, well—a girl had better beware of this cad. He may become a great boudoir buddy and make a million dollars. But he is just as likely to run away from home and spend most of his million bucks entertaining another girl.

The trouble with the survey is it covers only half the problem—men. What about girls?

What is needed now is to test some Radcliffe or Vassar girls to find out what their attitude toward tobacco shows about their personalities. After all, if science is going to help women find the right kind of husbands, it certainly owes it to men to help them forecast their wives.

In fact, here science ought to be even more thorough, as women are notoriously more adept at hiding their real personalities before marriage.

Suggested Points

A few suggested points to cover in the survey:

Is a girl who smokes more likely to give her husband more lunch money than a girl who doesn't?

If a girl invariably waits for her escort to light her cigarette, does that mean she will also expect her husband always to help her in and out of her girdle?

If a girl blows smoke rings through her nose, is that a sign she will later demand her husband take her out twice a week instead of once?

If a girl thinks it's gay to take the first few puffs on her boy friend's cigar, does that indicate she will also demand after marriage to go fishing and bowling with her husband?

And what about girls who chew tobacco secretly? Will they be neat housekeepers? Will they pass on their vice to their children?

Will a girl who smokes king size cigarettes now demand a king size budget later?

These are the questions that cry to science for an answer—and the answers may justify a lot of fearful bachelors.

Will Repair City Detention Cells As Time Permits

Repair of detention cells on the ground floor of the city hall, as proposed in a report of the State Commission of Correction, released today, will be made as soon as time permits, Mayor Edwin F. Radel said.

Repainting and replastering in the cells is recommended in the report which also suggested that city officials "give serious consideration" to providing all facilities for detention of prisoners instead of using five cells in the county jail.

Police Projects First

Mayor Radel said that the Common Council's building committee, and possibly the council, as a whole, have been notified, and it is planned to repair the cells in the city hall after other renovations, especially those in the police department, are made.

Aside from the suggested repairs the commission found the detention cells in acceptable condition. The report on the cells in the county jail was also generally favorable, but it suggested that the "arrangement of housing police prisoners in the county jail basement, some distance from police headquarters is anything but satisfactory, and the officials should take definite steps to assume their rightful responsibility and construct detention facilities to house their own prisoners."

Suggestion Not New

This recommendation has been made from time to time in past years, but the city has apparently been unable to solve the problem without providing for a separate building in which to house persons who are detained after arrest.

The report noted that the two cells in the city hall are used mainly to detain persons for court appearances. It reported 454 as the total held there in 1957. Total detention time was 203½ hours. Some, it noted were detained for only a few minutes, while others were held for several hours at a time.

The report noted that services of a physician are available for ill or injured prisoners. It noted that a prisoner died in the county jail section on Nov. 5, 1956, and since then a systematic hourly check is made and a record is kept.

The report, as forwarded here, was signed by Richard E. Woodward, inspector.

VOTE NO ON CONSOLIDATION

Dr. Carroll V. Newsom, president of New York University recently stated that too much money is being spent on elaborate educational trivia. He has also maintained that "we have placed so much emphasis on the institutionalized aspect of the educational process that we have almost forgotten the education!"

Consolidation proponents promise only a "possible" broader education with little mention of a better education. The Kingston Civic Association feels that the eleven million dollar debt for an elaborate and expensive school system would benefit neither the already overburdened taxpayer, or the pupil seeking more knowledge.

Mr. Herzog, at the Third Forum, stated that the $12.05 tax increase without consolidation which the Department of Education has been using would probably be nearer $5.00. If we reject consolidation there should be no need for a tax increase for several years.

The voters in the rural areas were told that the taxpayers of Kingston would pay a much greater share of the program if approved. Kingston's citizens are being told that there will be little difference in the tax rate. These and other conflicting stories by the proponents of consolidation cast a great shadow of doubt on the value of the entire program.

Additional state aid under consolidation is promised, but the voters are not strongly reminded that this money originally comes out of their pockets and that only a part is returned after deducting for an elaborate administration charge. Increased state aid can only come from increased state taxes.

The Kingston Civic Association strongly recommends that you vote NO — But no matter how you feel about consolidation — PLEASE VOTE.

KINGSTON, NEW YORK, APRIL 1, 1958

VOTE FOR CONSOLIDATION

One of the most important educational decisions in the history of the City of Kingston will be made tomorrow by the residents of this community when they vote on school consolidation.

We believe a favorable vote will be cast for without consolidation taxpayers both in the city and fringe areas will be faced with much higher tax bills in the years ahead.

Whether you think the State Department is wrong in reducing the number of school districts under its "Master Plan" and whether you think of consolidation in terms of dollars and cents and not in terms of additional benefits to our children, including those just beyond the corporate limits of our city, it is still good sense to vote for consolidation.

The Freeman believes that whatever temporary disadvantages there may be under consolidation, in the long run the advantages will outweigh them by a considerable margin.

It is indicated that going it alone would result in reduced curriculum for both the city children and the children in the outlying districts and that taxes would soar if we are to maintain the standard of education all our children now are receiving. So if everybody is going to lose and nobody is going to gain why not do something about it tomorrow by voting "yes" for consolidation.

The Kingston Board of Education is submitting the question to a public poll. Under the law, the board could have made the decision, but chose to seek an opinion on the part of the public. However, the board unanimously recommends that the voters vote "yes" on consolidation.

In the 25 outlying districts, approximately 63 per cent of the qualified voters already have voted in favor of consolidation with Kingston.

The question on consolidation has been put before the people for several months. The Freeman has devoted a large amount of space to the subject because of its great importance. We have published a series of articles, a question and answer column, accounts of public forums, and informational meetings.

We have also published the recommendations of the Kingston Board of Education and the opposition to the consolidation by the Kingston Civic Association.

We believe that the some 16,000 eligible to vote have had ample opportunity to be informed on the subject. Failure to be so informed must then be attributed to indifference on the part of the taxpayer.

We feel, however, that the majority of the people certainly are acquainted with the facts and they will express themselves forthrightly at the polls tomorrow.

This is an important step for the people of the city to make and we urge that you cast a favorable vote in the best interests of your children's future.

Every qualified voter should go to the polls tomorrow and exercise his right as a citizen and voter. It is your duty to take part in this poll for in no other way will the Kingston Board of Education know your opinion.

On May 7, 1957 on the question of the proposed bond issue of $2,667,500 for construction of a junior high school in the Dietz Stadium area, out of an eligible vote of some 16,000 there were but 5,591 votes cast. The percentage of vote cast was 34.73. The proposition lost 3,620 to 1,971.

This was a sad commentary on the degree of citizenship displayed by our residents. It should not happen tomorrow.

This referendum is equally as important as an election for Kingston officials. At the last city election, better than 75 per cent of the eligible voters fulfilled their obligation of citizenship.

Voting hours tomorrow will be between 12 noon and 9 p. m. Residents of Ward 1 and 10 will vote at School 8; Ward 2 at School 6; Ward 3 at School 5; Ward 4 and 5 at School 4; Ward 6 at School 3; Ward 7

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY
REPORT TO THE PUBLIC

The story of how businesses operate, how they meet their problems, is often as dramatic as the whodunits that I look at late at night. Therefore I have sometimes wondered how it happens that companies that spend millions of dollars on television do not use their commercials to tell something about themselves, particularly the capital and durable goods manufacturers who do not sell to the consumer directly.

The United States Steel Hour has recently been using its commercial time to explain what it is and how it does business and if we are to have good days interrupted in this manner, I prefer something really informative to watching a three-quarters naked female lie in the sand and sing about beer or cigarettes or bras.

The subject matter of U. S. Steel's "Report to the Public" is very instructive. We pay 7½ cents a pound on the average for carbon and alloy steel. So that amounts up to about $4,000,000,000 a year and looks very big. Of each dollar, 42½ cents goes to wages and salaries. Of the remaining 57½ cents, 30 cents went to 50,000 suppliers of products and services. That left 27½ cents of which 6 cents went to depreciation which really should be called "wearing-out," which is what happens to machines as well as men, only the government recognizes the fact of life about machines but not about human beings. So we are now down to 21½ cents but Federal, state and local taxes took 12 cents of that leaving only 9½ cents to gross profit out of every dollar earned.

Now, if the company could keep that 9½ cents as a real profit, it would be doing a very big business, but what actually happens is that it sets aside 2 cents additional for replacements and 3½ cents for research and improvements and such activities and comes out in the end 4 cents on the dollar of profit which goes to 300,000 share owners of whom not one owns more than 2 per cent of the stock.

It is a very valuable kind of report and would do more good abroad than much of the stuff that goes over to Europe, Asia and Africa these days. Another of these commercials deals with the problem of inflation. All costs, including labor costs, went up an average of 8½ per cent per year since 1940 but prices only went up 5½ per cent. The rest of the commercial explains how a company manipulates to avoid being out-priced in the market. But the commercial I liked best when I heard it was the one on obsolescence.

Here is a machine, one machine that cost $10,000,000. That is why some industrial operations cannot be done on a small scale. If a steel company owns five open hearth furnaces, they might have cost $50,000,000, 25 years ago. The government permits the company to take off part of cost each year, so that when the machine wears out, it can be replaced.

But at today's prices that machine costs $45,000,000. So where does a company get the money to make up the difference between the $10,000,000 it was permitted by the collector to set aside for replacement and the $35,000,000 that it has to find? Well, some of it is that 2 cents additional set aside out of each earned dollar. But much of it comes from borrowing from banks, insurance companies and the public.

You may have noticed when you look at railroad trains or locomotives that there are signs showing that the particular car or locomotive is not owned by the railroad but by a bank which acts as a trustee. We do not yet see such signs on machinery in factories, but anything can happen when so large a share of earned income goes to taxes and the taxes are wastefully and profitably spent.

The reason that the Administration, which knows as well as you or I that taxes must be cut, postpones that day is that they know that, short of war, the politicians will not be able to put the taxes back once they are taken off. Government will have to cut its cloth to fit its pocket-book; all sorts of useless and duplicative activities, described in the Hoover Reports and testified to before Congressional Committees, will have to go. Nothing would be better for the country.

Atomic Age 'Cocktail' Replaces Surgery for
Some Thyroid Ills
BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

A considerable number of recent correspondents have asked me the same question as today's first.

Q—What is an atomic cocktail and what is it used for?—M. O.

A—This doubtless refers to a liquid preparation containing iodine which has been made radioactive. The patient drinks it and the iodine (still radioactive) accumulates in the thyroid gland. Here the radioactivity is released and destroys some of the thyroid tissue. This method is used today in the treatment of certain disorders of the thyroid gland commonly called toxic goiter, exophthalmic goiter, or hyperthyroidism. To a large degree it has replaced surgery for certain disorders of this gland.

Q—What do you think about the use of the polio vaccine for the prevention of that disease?—Mrs. L. R.

A—There seems little doubt that the presently available polio vaccine, when given as directed, greatly reduces the danger of acquiring poliomyelitis. The latest figure I have seen is that 34 million persons in the United States have received the full three doses; 5 million have received one injection; and 25 million have had two shots. However, there remain some 45 million persons under 40 who have received no vaccine. Of this number, 15 million are children. I should strongly recommend that every person under 40 receive the full three shots without waiting till spring or summer when the hazards from the disease are likely to increase again.

Q—Why was the tube inserted in my left thigh following an operation for hiatus hernia? A neighbor had the same operation but did not have a tube.—Mrs. A.

A—The tube was probably for purpose of drainage. Such tubes are removed when the need for drainage is no longer present. The reason you had the tube and your neighbor didn't need not cause you concern.

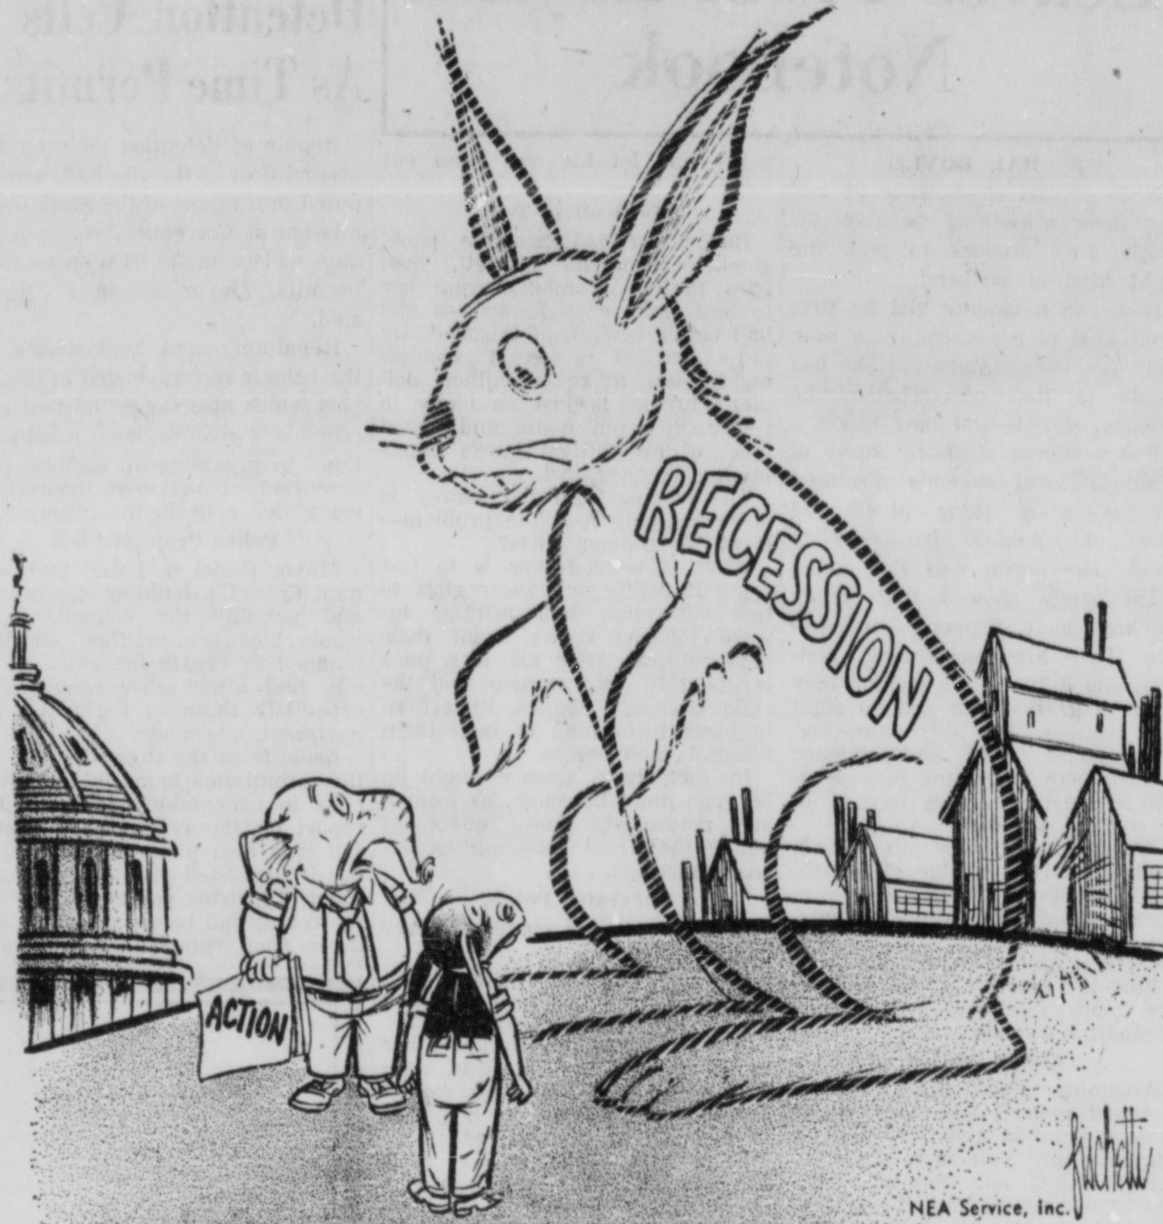

and 8 at School 2; Ward 9 at Myron J. Michael; Ward 11 and 13 at George Washington; Ward 12 at School 7.

Eligible voters will sign a ballot book, receive a printed ballot, vote "yes" or "no" and place the ballot in the ballot box. The Parent-Teacher Council of the Kingston Schools will handle the referendum.

An eligible voter is one that is a citizen of the United States, at least 21 years of age, an inhabitant of the state for one year next preceding the election and for the last four months a resident of the county and the last 30 days a resident of the school district.

We urge all voters to go to the polls tomorrow and vote cautiously and wisely. Vote "yes" for consolidation.

"For a While There I Didn't, but I Sure See Him Now"

Washington News

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Sen. John L. McClellan's labor racketeering committee report and legislative recommendations have drawn loud objections from union officials.

But the general opinion here is that it will take something more than the foamings of Sen. Pat McNamara (D-Mich.) and AFL-CIO President George Meany to whitewash the American labor movement in the public mind.

McNamara and Meany both charge the McClellan committee with trying to smear all organized labor in a blanket indictment because of the sins of a few of its officials. Senator McNamara says that the committee has exposed wrong-doing in only five out of 189 international organizations containing between two million out of 18 million members.

THIS IS A DEFENSE along the line followed by union leaders when it was first charged their organizations were infiltrated by Communists, over 20 years ago.

It was admitted then that the vast majority of workers were good loyal Americans, free from communism. The same thing can be said today of the majority of union members on charges of corruption in their leaders.

Labor unions today are at least semi-public bodies, however. Two to 10 per cent corruption, like 2 to 10 per cent communism isn't clean enough to win public approval.

Ten years after the communism-in-unions charges were being bandied about, labor officials were still cleaning house. The American labor movement today still cannot claim that it is 100 per cent free from Communist infiltration.

Similarly, it is now recognized that the American labor movement may have another 10-year job on its hands to clean its house of corrupt leadership and practices.

SENATOR McNAMARA's further charge that equal emphasis was not placed on investigating corruption in management if not completely borne out by the McClellan committee majority's long list of findings.

They accuse management of extensive collusion with unions. This is shown to have resulted in under-the-table and sweetheart contracts, payoffs to union officials and trade agreements with management to achieve monopolies.

Management is also accused of outright violation of Taft-Hartley and National Labor Relations acts through hiring labor spies and in reprisals against union members.

The five recommendations of the McClellan committee for new legislation present nothing new. They merely call attention to abuses which were known to exist when the committee first started to investigate corrupt practices.

Bills to regulate union, pension and welfare funds have been before Congress for some years without action.

The need for legislation to insure democracy in unions has also been obvious for a long time. Even the American Civil Liberties Union has now proposed a "bill of rights" to protect individual members from their unions.

COMMITTEE recommendations to curb the activities of middlemen in labor-management disputes and to clarify the no-man's land in labor-management relations could be achieved by amendments to the NLRB and Taft-Hartley acts.

It is notorious, however, that Congress has for some years refused to consider any amendments to labor laws, whether they were pro-union or anti-union in sentiment.

The principal value of the McClellan committee report, it is believed, may therefore turn out to be as a goad to the Congress itself to do something.

But in an election year, when no congressman wants to do anything that could possibly alienate any potential voter, the likelihood of any action is considered slim.

Summit 'Show' Suggested As Benefit for Hungarians

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON—Some people hereabouts are always urging our own government to take the propaganda "initiative" away from the Soviets. This correspondent has been cogitating about it for some time now and, with all due humility, offers a plan that may at least achieve a high point in dramatic technique.

First, inasmuch as the Kremlin wants a "show" or a spectacular demonstration of some kind, let the "summit" conference be a show and let it be held in Madison Square Garden, New York City, where it can be witnessed by millions of persons day in and day out.

Second, let an admission fee be charged and the TV rights sold for a big sum. Then let all the proceeds be distributed to the families of the thousands of Hungarian patriots who were killed or maimed in the recent attempt of the Hungarian people to regain their freedom.

Could End Oppression

Third, if the foregoing—which requires international agreement—cannot be achieved, let there be some "unilateral" decisions made. This means that, without any agreement with the other party, one side takes it upon itself to stop doing certain things that are harmful to people in another country.

Thus, the Soviet government could stop oppressing the people of Poland, Bulgaria, Romania, Czechoslovakia, East Germany, Hungary, Latvia, Estonia and Lithuania. This is far more important than to stop "testing" nuclear bombs. For it is asserted by the scientists that the amount of radioactivity from nuclear tests isn't any more harmful than medical X-rays or the luminous rays of a wrist watch. As for the police measures taken by the Kremlin to deprive millions of persons in Eastern Europe of their liberties, this is much more damaging to mankind. Indeed, many people would prefer death to any enslaved life under Communist tyranny.

Other Suggestions

Another "unilateral" decision Moscow could take would be to open up her radio and television to ambassadors from foreign countries just as America does.

Still another bit of "unilateral" righteousness which the Communists could exhibit would be to let law abiding citizens of other countries travel where they like inside the Soviet Union.

The Soviets might also make a "unilateral" resolution to admit not just a handful of correspondents to reside in Moscow but as many as wish to do so. This is what a free press really means. What are the Communists afraid of? Why do they maintain censorship on all outgoing news and radio broadcasts made by correspondents resident in Moscow?

There is another "unilateral" adventure on which Moscow might embark. It could return the territory of East Germany to the people of Germany. This is a step which would do much more to hasten the peace of Europe than any phony gestures about stopping the testing of nuclear weapons.

Publicizes a Fake Desire

"Unilateral" is a big word nowadays in the propaganda of the Communists. It implies self-denial and a wish to go ahead with good deeds irrespective of whether an adversary does the same. But, strictly speaking, the latest proposal of the Soviets isn't one-sided at all. While agreeing to give up the testing of nuclear bombs for a while, the threat is also made to resume testing later on if the United States doesn't also agree to stop testing. So it's really a maneuver that merely publicizes a fake desire for an international arrangement to stop testing. The United States has all along advocated the same objective, but has insisted on a system of safeguards to prevent concealment or cheating.

There is a place where this kind of agreement can be negotiated. It's in the United Nations Disarmament Commission. But the Soviets have not been willing thus far to go again to that body for further talks. It's really a boycott of the United Nations. The Communists seem to prefer the theatrical "tuff" which, they believe, will deceive the world, including many gullible persons in America.

No Agreement Anyway

So maybe the Madison Square Garden idea is the answer after all. Of course, nothing would be agreed to there, but this would also be true of any other type of conference.

For there will be no peace until menacing dictatorships are overthrown, and the world has been made "safe for democracy." This was a World War I slogan, but it is even more pertinent today when some of the large empires of the past which nourished freedom are being broken into fragments due to alleged "nationalistic" feeling, only to have these smaller countries gathered one by one under the yoke of Soviet imperialism.

Meanwhile, the remainder of the free world, threatened by aggression, staggers under the heavy cost of armaments. It would be relatively inexpensive to carry the true story to the peoples behind the Iron Curtain so that they will know that the appeasers in our midst are not the spokesmen of the West. It is important that the oppressed peoples should never feel they have been forsaken but that, instead, they can rely on the moral support of the whole world whenever they start breaking the chains of their bondage.

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Billed as the month of decision April could give us the answer to the big question of the day: has the mild recession about run its course or is this just the preliminary to something more serious?

March was the month that the President and many like him thought could show the beginning of the end of the recession. The figures on March will be coming out in two or three weeks.

By then the administration and the Congress are expected to make their decisions on what to do about government measures to help start an upturn: tax cuts or public work programs or direct aid of various kinds to the unemployed, along with still easier credit.

Decisions Expected

Consumers and businessmen are expected to make some decisions this month, too.

For this is the season when major parts of the economy usually look up. How much of a spring pickup there is, if any, will settle the uncertainties in many minds, just as the failure of the fall pickup after Labor Day made the already under way recession official. Final figures on Easter trade should tell a lot. But buying for spring should continue well after Easter, if for no other reason than that it's earlier this year.

During the dreary winter months consumers have shown more tendency to save their money when they could then spend it the way they were doing a year ago.

Living Off Inventories

Businessmen have been saving, too. With them it took the form of living off inventories as much as possible and ordering as little as possible. Some think this might come to an end this month for a lot of firms that haven't much left on the shelves to draw from any longer.

Businessmen may make some decision this month about price cutting. There has been some of that already. Today the aluminum producers start selling their metal at two cents a pound less. In England steel prices have been cut. Businessmen remember that it was European cutting of prices for copper and aluminum that started similar moves here.

Finds Consumers Eager

Price cutting that followed the end of fair trade's price setting on small household appliances found consumers eager to buy.

This month should give business a good idea of another big question on their and most persons' minds: will the labor-management talks just getting under way in Detroit signal still higher wages or a strike? If higher wages, the example set by the auto workers could affect the decision of labor and management in other industries. If a strike, the hopes of the steel companies and of many other suppliers of the auto factories will be set back.

If it's higher wages for the auto workers and perhaps later for others, will that signal another round of rising prices credited to higher production costs?

April will bring a shower of first-quarter earnings reports. Many of them seem sure to make unpleasant reading when compared with profits in the first three months of 1957, when for most companies net income was still rising.

Wall Street says the stock market has been discounting these in advance, but if poor earnings team up with unfavorable statistics out of Washington, April could see a lot of folk reassessing their notions about the economy.

Think It Through

By E. F. HUTTON
WE SUPPOSE

The legitimate function of taxation is to raise revenue to support necessary Government but not to destroy society, nor the people who support Government.

Heavy, progressive Federal income and State taxes are at the breaking point.

Karl Marx proposed present taxes a hundred years ago, not to support government, but to promote Socialism. They are destroying the freedom of the venturesome and valorous spirit of our Risk Capital System (profit or loss). They discourage the incentive to work, save and invest in productive enterprises. After that, Government will subsidize business, agriculture, transportation, foreign trade, etc. Then what have we? Socialism! That means the end of freedom—the closing chapter of the Constitutional Direction of Our Way of Life.

Today, we have 66 million people at work. The Free Enterprise System provides their jobs. The job holders are headed for Government control of their jobs. When one works for the Government, holidays, benefits and shorter hours are out—just like one blows out a candle. Ask a Russian!

Ted Williams signed up for 135 grand—baseball's top pay. He's 38 and approaching the end of his career. After paying taxes, what's he got left? The tax on 100,000 $'s is 67,320 $'s, and on every dollar over 100 grand, the Government collects 89%, leaving Ted 11c per $.

If Ted didn't love baseball, he'd quit.

Special Series on ConsolidationKingston's Role Under Enlarged School Plan

(Editor's Note: This is the final in a series of articles on consolidation as prepared by a special committee. The articles have been prepared in a way to acquaint Kingston residents with the school plan before they cast their ballots. Tomorrow, Kingston voters will go to the polls and vote on this vital educational stand.)

It has been urged by some individuals that the taxpayers of the City of Kingston should reject consolidation and they have listed 10 reasons why the citizens of Kingston should reject this proposal. The first four reasons they have advanced have been answered in four preceding issues of this newspaper. Under this column tonight we will answer points five through 10 listed by the opposition.

Rural Buildings Newer

This statement is true but in addition to this statement the following should also be considered. The rural area has a larger debt than the City of Kingston because they have newer buildings as evidenced by those at Port Ewen, Chambers, Lake Katrine and Hurley. Kingston, sometime in the not too distant future, must replace Schools 2, 3 and 4 and build additions on 5 and 6. Under a program of isolation the Kingston taxpayers would pay 100 per cent of the cost of these new buildings and the additions. Under consolidation, the cost of these buildings will be shared by our friends in the rural area. It must also be considered that the rural area is expanding much more rapidly than Kingston and in a few years the rural area will be contributing more than the 43 per cent that they would initially be contributing under consolidation.

6. "If we accept consolidation, we must assume that the Department of Education will build two Junior High Schools at their estimated figure of $4,000,000 plus interest charges for twenty years $1,344,900, for a total of $5,344,900. There are also four $500,000 bonds to be floated for additions to elementary schools which with interest, amounts to $2,684,600 over a period of 20 years. This amounts to $11,044,450 that will eventually be paid by the already over-burdened taxpayer of both the rural area and the city of Kingston."

It should be considered that the extra state aid which the new consolidated district would receive has been calculated to amortize the payment of these bond issues over a period of 20 years.

Voters Must Approve

It should also be emphasized that when new buildings are proposed for the consolidated school district, whether they be junior high schools, new elementary schools, or additions to existing elementary schools, such proposals must be approved by the voters of the consolidated school district. A vote for consolidation does not mean that the people of the new consolidated district are obligated to build the plants proposed in the consolidation study. A referendum is required for any bond issue that will extend over a period of five years.

7. "As we all agree that the State of New York has no monies of its own, state aid is nothing but a tax refund after an elaborate administration charge has been deducted and the balance refunded to us."

Taxes Will Stay

Whether Kingston chooses a program of consolidation or isolation, each resident of the city of Kingston will continue to pay New York State Income Tax, New York State gasoline tax, etc. A vote against consolidation, obviously, will not relieve the city taxpayers of this burden. In the event that Kingston does not consolidate, all tax money paid to New York State for educational purposes goes into a pool to be allotted to those districts throughout the state that have already either consolidated or centralized. Isn't it reasonable to suggest that Kingston should get its fair share of this extra state aid rather than pay its obligation to the state in the form of the money that will then go to other school districts, for building programs, transportation, teachers salaries, etc. In other school districts that have become part of the state's overall school district reorganization.

8. "The officials of the Department of Education of Albany state we will receive additional state aid if we consolidate. The officials of the Department of Education of Kingston have said that, if we do not consolidate, we could overcome this in a period of either five to seven years."

This argument, as advanced by the opposition, is also true but does not alter the fact that taxes would increase, even if we had the same enrollment, if all our students were from within the city of Kingston. Kingston now receives from the rural area, aside from State Aid, tuition in the amount of $215,000. This represents $5.29 on the tax rate under the present assessed valuation. Although it is true in a consolidated district no tuition would be charged to the rural area, the income that they are now raising to pay this tuition to the Kingston School District would still be raised for the consolidated school district in the form of taxation.

Obligation to State

The State Education Department has an obligation to the children of all of the State of New York. This includes the Union Free School District in the heart of the Catskills, the Common School District in the middle of the Catskills, as well as our own City School District here in Kingston. We, here in Kingston, who have been blessed with a fine educational system over the past years, do not have to agree with the State's point of view in this matter but certainly we must respect their philosophy for furnishing equal educational opportunities to all of the students in New York State. Only through a program of school district reorganization can a high school education be provided to the boys and girls in areas where high schools are not now located.

10. "If consolidation had been in effect in the year 1956-57, our cost of administration, supervision, teachers, nurses, dental hygienists would have cost $2,039,130. In 1961-62 under Consolidation, it will cost $2,882,560, a total increase of $843,430."

Most for Salaries

From the period 1953-54 to the school year 1957-58, the budget of the City School District alone has increased by $1,000,000. Of this figure approximately 67 per cent represents instructional salaries including teachers, nurses, dental hygienists, supervision and administration. Therefore, in this four year period approximately $670,000 worth of increase has gone for salaries. The opposition has stated that during the five year period from 1956-57 to 1961-62 under a program of consolidation these salaries will increase $843,000. This increase represents about the same increase that has taken place over the preceding period for the City School District alone. It should also be remembered also that this $843,000 increase represents the staff of not only the Kingston City Schools, but also the staff in the outlying area. It must also be remembered that these figures are based on the assumption that economic conditions should continue over the next few years in the same manner as they have over the past years. This, of course, is anyone's guess and at best can only be an estimate.

Vote YES for CONSOLIDATIONLET'S DEAL IN FULL TRUTHS*THE TRUE FACTS ARE THESE:*WHICH DO YOU WANT?

1. A YES vote does mean a slight increase in taxes of $1.91
A NO VOTE MEANS AN INCREASE OF $12.05
2. A YES VOTE MEANS AN EVEN BETTER EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM THAN WE HAVE NOW.
A NO vote means seven long years of Educational famine before we get back to where we are today!
3. A YES VOTE MEANS WE GET OUR SHARE OF ADDITIONAL STATE AID WHICH 90% OF THE STATE IS NOW GETTING—$435,000 each and every year—over and above what we now get.
A NO vote means we City taxpayers pay the same in state taxes—gasoline, income and etc., but get nothing back. Our rural friends get it all.
4. A YES VOTE MEANS WE GET OUR SHARE OF TAXES FROM I.B.M. AND NEW INDUSTRIES AND HOMES OUTSIDE THE CITY.
A NO vote means we get none. The rural area gets it all.
5. REMEMBER
 - (a) Rural taxes will increase more than city taxes under consolidation. Consolidation will cost the rural taxpayer $180,000 more per year.
 - (b) If, and only if we consolidate, we get above $435,000 in additional state aid.
 - (c) This total added income $615,000 will more than pay the transportation costs ($125,000) and will compensate Kingston taxpayers for their bonded indebtedness.

Don't be misled into thinking Kingston is getting short-changed!

Oswego Case Still Smoulders

Principal Relieves Mayor of School Job

OSWEGO (AP)—Mayor Vincent A. Corsall returned to his high school classroom today in a short-lived attempt to resume his duties as a science teacher.

Corsall said he had returned "on a court order" and said he would not leave "until a court order is obtained to remove me."

However, shortly after unlocking the door and taking the position behind his desk, Corsall was "relieved" by Principal Ralph M. Faust.

The principal said he had "relieved Mr. Corsall by order of the superintendent of schools."

Corsall's efforts to return to his teaching assignment have drawn an unusual amount of interest to a special referendum being conducted today.

City voters were to decide whether to continue an appointive system for the school board or to replace it with an elective system.

Board Blames Conflict

The board itself voted 3-1 yesterday to fight a court order reinstating Corsall to his teaching post. President Norman Gover voted against the appeal.

The board dismissed Corsall effective Jan. 1, the date he took office as mayor. The board contended there was a conflict of interest between the teaching job and the mayor's position, since school board members were appointed by the mayor.

Corsall has advocated the elective system.

The board took action yesterday after a decision issued Saturday by Justice Eugene F. Sullivan of State Supreme Court.

Sullivan held that the "duties of the mayor and those of a teacher in the city's public schools are quite independent of each other" and therefore "do not conflict."

Corsall, elated at the court's decision, reported at the school yesterday morning but was told he could not resume his post until word was received from the board. Members of the board met later in the day and decided upon the appeal.

Thomas S. Zaia, board attorney, said the appeal automatically would stay effectiveness of Sullivan's order for 30 days.

Puzzled Over Action

Corsall said he was "at a complete loss to understand the action of the board."

"Any such action," he said, "will indicate to me that the board may have been prompted by motives which are not purely objective and not in the best interests of the students."

Corsall was elected last November on the Liberal party ticket, although he is a registered Democrat. His teaching job pays $5,500 a year and the mayoralty pays $5,050 a year.

Prior to taking office as mayor, Corsall refused an offer from the board for a leave of absence and the board refused his offer to teach without pay.

No Injuries Reported In School Bus Mishap

No injuries and only slight damage was reported by Kingston police on an accident involving a fully-loaded school bus and a passenger vehicle about 3:31 p. m. Monday.

A school bus, which normally carries 40 pupils, owned by Acker Bus Lines of East Kingston, and operated by Richard J. Emerick, 28 of Otis Street, Kingston, was in collision with a sedan operated by Stephen Spiegel 16 of 44 Montrose Avenue at Franklin near Fair Street, police reported.

According to the police report both vehicles were traveling west on Franklin Street. When the Spiegel vehicle stopped at a caution sign, the bus bumped into the rear of the passenger car causing damage to the rear bumper, rear fender and trunk. Damage to the lower front body panel on the bus was also reported to police.

Officers Garvin Fisher and Thomas Kearney investigated the incident.

Snyder Goes Back

ney for Snyder, and William A. Kelly, Corporation Counsel for the City of Kingston, were revised in several aspects. The changes were agreed to verbally by Patrolman Snyder and his attorney.

"In Contact With Board"

"The board was in constant contact with the corporation counsel during the entire board meeting. He too concurred on the proposed changes and will meet with Attorney Gaffney for the purpose of putting these changes in writing. The changes involve agreeable adjustments in the amount of the retroactive pay due to Snyder."

"Mayor Radel made all people concerned aware of the fact that this reinstatement is done strictly because of the legal right of Patrolman Snyder in that the previous administration and the then Board of Police Commissioners and the then corporation counsel did not act according to the directives which state in effect that a person who is suspended cannot be penalized by more than 30 days suspension or at the end of that time charges must be brought against him."

Show Cause Issued

"Though many months passed with no actions or charges being brought, Mayor Radel took all immediate action to secure legal opinion on the Snyder case when a show cause order was issued by his attorney on March 12, 1958."

"It was further pointed out to all concerned that the reinstatement of the officer was done because no charges had been placed and he was legally liable for reinstatement. However, the mayor further pointed out to Officer Snyder and his attorney that this action by the board does not preclude the possibility of future charges where necessary evolving from the transcripts of the Reuter report and the Grand Jury. The mayor and the board spent considerable time in discussing with the officer their plans for the department's future and what they require and expect of the department's personnel in operating a good, efficient police force."

"In being received back on the force the mayor expressed to Officer Snyder the hope that the difficulties involving him with the current probes are completely in the past and that he would concentrate on conducting himself in an exemplary manner and fit in with the future plans of the department as proposed by the board."

Those attending were Mayor Radel, and Commissioners Henry Singer, Robert Evory, Lawrence Quilty, Roland A. Augustine and Chief of Police Raymond Van Buren.

Knowland, Party Leaders Confer On Slump Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) called Republicans together today to assess the "fine print" in an anti-recession bill Democratic leaders hoped the Senate would pass before midnight.

The measure would make a billion dollars in loans available for "national public works."

Knowland said he expects the Republican position of the bill to be solidified at a meeting of the GOP policy committee.

"We want to read the fine print before we decide what position to take on possible amendments to the bill," the Senate Republican leader said in an interview.

Sen. Mansfield of Montana, acting Democratic leader, said he hopes the Senate can push the measure through in a long-hours session he said will run to midnight if necessary.

The bill is the last of a series of anti-recession measures on which Democratic leaders are pushing for Senate action before an Easter recess. It won 13-2 approval of the Senate Banking Committee yesterday.

NEW YORK (AP)—Industrials were lower as the stock market made a moderate retreat early this afternoon. Trading was quiet.

Key stocks declined fractions to about a point.

After a mixed opening, prices were irregularly lower, then showed an increasing number of minus signs.

Shares representing heavy industry continued to edge backward as a deepening decline in automobile and steel output was reported.

Steels, chemicals, motors, aircrafts, oils and rails were among the losing group.

The market began the second quarter of 1958 with a net rise behind it for the first three months of the year despite the recession.

Lower first quarter earnings reports were looked for by brokers.

Leading steels were lower.

Coppers continued to back-pedal from their recent advance.

Chemicals resumed yesterday's decline mildly.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was down 30 cents to $161.60 with the industrials down 70 cents, the rails down 20 cents and the utilities unchanged.

American Stock Exchange prices were irregularly lower in moderately active trading.

Suspicion Noted In Sawkill and Woodstock Fires

Two fires of suspicious origin were reported early this morning in the hamlet of Sawkill and the town of Woodstock.

The one in the town of Woodstock involved a garage on the Christopher Everett property. It burned to the ground.

Fifth Fire

The other blaze was in an unoccupied residence on the old Brophy property in Sawkill—about the fifth time fires have been extinguished there. This was reportedly extinguished by the Sawkill Fire Department before causing too much damage.

The Brophy fire was reported about 3:25 a. m., having been spotted by a passing motorist. The dwelling has been unoccupied for years.

Mrs. Francis Joy, wife of the Sawkill fire chief, said other fires, apparently of incendiary origin, have been set there a number of times in the past. None have made much headway before it was detected and extinguished.

The second fire, which burned down the garage, was reported about 5 a. m. by the Otto Karbow family which resides nearby.

Report Hearing Car

The Karbows reported to the Ulster County sheriff's office that they heard a car turning around near the garage during the early hours of the morning, a short time before the fire. They were unable to see the vehicle because of darkness.

The residence served by the garage was badly damaged by fire about a year and a half ago. Only the outer walls are still standing. The house was occupied by the Frank Estes family at the time it was destroyed. They lost all personal belongings.

The Woodstock Fire Department responded, after which Sawkill returned to its station. During the absence of Sawkill equipment the Ruby Fire Department assumed a standby status.

The sheriff's office dispatched Deputy Sheriffs Charles Dullea and George Reitmeyer, who handled traffic and assisted at the scene.

Mrs. Joy told The Freeman it certainly seemed suspicious—two such fires within an hour or two of each other. She pointed out that a "firebug is hard to catch" unless you actually see him actually setting the blaze.

Former Otsego Clerk Charged With Larceny

COOPERSTOWN (AP)—A former senior account clerk in the Otsego County Welfare Department is charged with grand larceny and forgery in a $3,100 shortage in department funds.

Mrs. Verna Jewell, 41, who now lives in Albany, was named in a sealed indictment returned last week by a county grand jury.

The indictment was opened yesterday after she surrendered to state police. It charged her with two counts of first-degree grand larceny, one count of falsification of public records, and one count of third-degree forgery.

Mrs. Jewell pleaded innocent at arraignment in county court and was released in $3,000 bail. No trial date was set.

Mrs. Jewell had been employed by the welfare department for 12 years. She resigned as senior account clerk last October, about the time state auditors began a check of the accounts.

Rondout Valley Students Attend New York Forum

Three senior students represented Rondout Valley Central High School at the recent New York Herald Tribune Forum at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel.

Diane Doyle and Thomas Terwilliger of Kerhonkson and Joan Hayes of Accord represented the senior class. The faculty was represented by Miss Bernadette Gaudette and Russell Van Regemortel.

Thirty-four delegates from 34 countries took part in the forum which included: Introduction of Student Delegates; Our International Language; Travel Tips for American Tourists; and Panel Discussions on The Conquest of Prejudice, Education for What?, and The Survival of Opposites.

The forum gave students an opportunity to realize how much alike all human beings are; an opportunity for increasing their interest in world affairs, and through the delegates' reactions, a fresh appraisal of the accomplishments of American democracy.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House formally passed and sent to the Senate a bill appropriating $750,000 for expenses of the Civil Rights Commission for the fiscal year starting July 1.

The action by roll-call vote confirmed tentative approval yesterday.

Salamanca Youth Killed by Auto

SALAMANCA — Five-year-old Martin Jimerson was killed yesterday when he ran into the road near his home and was struck by an automobile.

His mother, Mrs. Doris Jimerson, was fatally burned last Sept. 22 after a family argument. Police said Martin's grandmother, Mrs. Fleeta Jimerson, hurled a jug of gasoline into the kitchen where the younger woman was preparing dinner.

Fleeta Jimerson pleaded guilty to a charge of second-degree manslaughter and on Nov. 9 was sentenced to serve three to six years at Westfield State Farm.

Martin is survived by his father, Spencer, three sisters and four brothers. The family lives on the Allegany Indian Reservation near this Cattaraugus County city.

DO YOU REMEMBER

By SOPHIE MILLER

Perhaps many of the readers of this column have seen the write up in the travel section of the New York Herald Tribune, Sunday, March 16, on the Great Landmarks of the World, that is the Acropolis being restored, in Greece.

They show an artist sketch of the famous Parthenon, or Temple of Athena, as it was under construction between the years 448 and 439. The noted sculptor, Phidias supervised the great project. Much has happened since then to the world at large and to this classic building. Plans are underway to restore the roof of the massive Parthenon which sits in ruined splendor atop the Acropolis, and they hope to preserve the last of its frieze. It is said, most of the statuary was carted off to England by Lord Elgin and is now in the British Marbles.

It seems the writer of the article, Julie Smith, is sending this information right from Athens. A new road now rings the ancient citadel and work is underway to restore its broken temples, she writes. One wonders, just what type of architecture lasts out the ages and is admired enough to be copied. We see no end of reproductions of these columns. It is said the building was done with a finesse such as the world has never known. The Parthenon, Smith writes, is not exactly perpendicular. Its 46 great columns lean slightly inward and, if projected, would become a pyramid.

They say, even distances between shafts differ, and each column bulges in the middle. All this achieved a neat simplicity and served as inspiration for thousands of Grecian structures from Paris' Madeleine Church to Washington's Supreme Court Building. That is what I mean, what type of architecture lasts through the ages. It has simplicity, dignity, harmony and of course everyone with the love of the classic in structure wants to copy it.

It is said, the terrace of the Acropolis, even today, affords a superb view of the classic sights of Athens. There is the Pnyx, where an assembly of citizens created the world's first democracy, the Temple of Olympian Zeus, where the Athenians came to pray. It seems the Greek government with the aid of the American School of Classical Studies began to excavate the Agora a few decades ago. The Stoa was rebuilt, and thousands of relics were dug up at a cost of $3,000,000, half of it from John D. Rockefeller Jr. Today some 60,000 art objects are on display at the Stoa Museum. The relics range from a Spartan shield, a trophy of Athenian victory in 424 B.C., to a collection of ballots, tiles on which the Athenians scratched the names of potential dictators.

Historians say that the splendor of the Acropolis goes back to the destruction of Athens by the Persians some 2,500 years ago. On the day after the sacking of their city, a band of Athenians climbed up Acropolis Hill to offer sacrifice to the goddess Athena. Amidst the fire-blackened fragments of their temples, they found Athena's olive tree, green and flourishing. This gave them such encouragement as though it was a good omen, spurred on by Themistocles they rebuilt their city. Kingston, too had been burned by the British and rebuilt itself less than 200 years ago.

Ogdensburg, a port of entry, is the only American city directly on the St. Lawrence River.

Individual Shrimp 'Packet' Dinners End Clean-up Fuss

QUICK, convenient—and good eating, too—are these shrimp "packet" dinners cooked and served in quilted aluminum foil.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor
Timesaving yet delicious, "packet" dinners are easy to prepare. They are cooked in quilted aluminum foil, can be served right in their cooking package thereby saving washing of pots, pans and dishes. Each packet is cooked in its own jacket.

For each packet allow: one-quarter cup uncooked white rice, 1/4 teaspoon salt, dash of pepper, 1/4 teaspoon curry powder, 1/4 teaspoon monosodium glutamate, 6 shelled uncooked shrimp or prawns; 4 frozen spears or 1/4 cup frozen tips, 1/2 cup water, quilted broiling foil.

Place the uncooked rice in the center of a 10-inch length of heavy quilted foil, the kind made specially for broiling. Arrange the shrimp or prawns and asparagus over the rice. Mix seasonings and sprinkle over top of ingredients. Bring the lengthwise sides of the foil up over the food and fold together securely three times. Then make a secure triple fold at one end, so the juices will be sealed in. Now carefully pour 1/2 cup water into the open end of the packet and seal. After the water is in the packet do not attempt to pick the packet up by one end. Always lift with both ends to prevent water from coming through the sealed foil. Place on a cookie sheet in a hot oven (400 degrees F.) for 25-30 minutes. To serve, packet can be placed directly on plates and opened by cutting crisscross and folding back the foil. Or if desired, each packet can be opened at one end and placed on plate.

TOMORROW'S DINNER: Shrimp packet dinner, garlic bread, lettuce and tomato salad, favorite dressing, rhubarb tarts, coffee, tea, milk.

JDs Attack Trooper

In Bid to Leave School

WARWICK — Six juvenile delinquents who escaped from Warwick State School attacked a state trooper yesterday as he tried to take them back.

Trooper George Menken said one of the boys brandished a butcher knife. Menken's uniform and shirt were cut but he suffered only superficial injuries.

Other troopers came to his aid and returned the boys to the school.

Menken found the boys, whose names were not divulged, on the Pine Island Turnpike. He got them into his car and started toward the school. Then they jumped him and forced him to stop the car.

Three troopers from the nearby Monroe barracks answered Menken's radio call for help. Trooper Jack Carl said he also was attacked by the knife-wielder.

Eight inmates ran away Sunday night. Two returned voluntarily. The six Menken encountered had broken into a summer bungalow colony and became intoxicated on liquor they found.

The six were sent to the school from New York City.

Hollywood News, Views

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD — Carolyn Jones didn't collect an Oscar last week, as many predicted she would. But she needn't worry.

With or without the golden bauble, she's headed for top stardom. And all because of a mere 5 minutes and 10 seconds on the screen.

Wide-eyed Carolyn is the babe who played the Greenwich Village intellectual in "The Bachelor Party." It was only a bit but her bright performance gave the film such a lift that she won an Academy nomination.

Of a more tangible nature, she also won the attention of film producers in search of a young, pretty and talented leading lady. She was signed by Warners for a picture a year and did a stand-out job in "Marjorie Morningstar" as Natalie Wood's outspoken buddy.

She also signed with Hal Wallis for two pictures a year and played opposite palpatin' Elvis Presley in his swan song before his longterm contract with Uncle Sam.

There used to be a saying in vaudeville for stars who reworked their old material: change your act. Carolyn offers this advice to starlets: change your hair.

"It worked in my case," she remarked. "I couldn't get off the ground as a blonde. But as soon as I turned brunette, things started happening."

No overnight star is Carolyn. An Amarillo, Tex., girl, she came here to study acting at the Pasadena Playhouse. Paramount signed her to a contract and used her in a few pictures as a blonde cutie — she's that Hollywood rarity, a natural blonde.

Came the depression of 1952 and Carolyn got the ax, along with hundreds of other studio employees. But she didn't give up.

"I was lucky," she said. "I'm a product of the new Hollywood stock training—TV films. What stock was to actors of another generation, TV films are today—a training ground. I did about 50 of them, playing all kinds of roles in all kinds of stories. The experience was invaluable."

When the opportunity came, she was ready. That was "Bachelor Party." The man who picked her was Hecht-Hill-Lancaster executive Max Arnow. Years before, he had offered to test her in a black wig for the role Donna Reed played in "From Here To Eternity." Carolyn lost out by having pneumonia the day she was supposed to test.

Arnow didn't forget Carolyn, nor the conception of her as a brunette. But she insisted that she go all the way with black hair, not just modified blonde.

"It made all the difference in the world in my appearance," she commented. "That aura of blonde hair above my face was the first thing people looked at—my features were secondary. But the black hair made people look at my face."

Today's hand was played exactly 20 years ago with a most appropriate result for the day in question.

North and South were one of the ranking pairs of that day and while we may not agree completely with their bidding, the final contract of seven spades was not unreasonable.

South ruffed the opening heart lead with the ace of trumps and noted that he had a normal club finesse for his contract. He also noted that the finesse was not likely to work. East would have been a more persistent bidder with the ace-king-jack of hearts and the king of clubs.

South also noted that he could make his contract if he could ruff all three of dummy's hearts in his own hand and get back to dummy to pull trumps.

There was only one way to accomplish this; lead the five of diamonds and finesse dummy's eight, ruff a second heart with the king of trumps and enter dummy again by leading a low trump.

The jack of trumps would take care of dummy's last heart and South could get back to dummy with the queen of diamonds. The three remaining trumps would allow him to discard his three low clubs and his diamond suit and ace of clubs account for the rest of the tricks.

Where does the April fool joke come in? West was my old teammate, the late Jimmy Maier.

Jimmy, perhaps the greatest defensive player of all time, just happened to stick his nine of diamonds on South's five. This killed one entry to dummy and the joke was on South. He had to fall back on the club finesse and was down one.

Resentment Of DeGroat Ordered

A burglary, third degree, judgment and conviction against Donald DeGroat, Kingston, has been affirmed by the Appellate Division but the sentence of 1½ to 3 years at Clinton State Prison, imposed in 1955 is reversed and the matter remitted to County Court for resentencing. Execution of sentence was suspended by Former County Judge William A. Kelly and DeGroat was placed on probation for two years. Conviction under an unlawful entry count is reversed and that count dismissed.

DeGroat was convicted of burglary, third degree, and unlawful entry in 1955 for an alleged entrance to the Irving H. Sherman premises on Maverick Road, Woodstock, where a gun was missing. Imposition of sentence for the unlawful entry was suspended at the time of sentence. The Appellate Division in its memorandum accompanying the decision handed down on March 27, says, "since there was a finding that defendant had committed the crime of burglary he should not have been convicted also of the crime of unlawful entry and that part of the judgment should be reversed and such count in the indictment dismissed."

Although represented by counsel at the time of sentence, the Court holds that DeGroat was not asked at the time judgment was passed whether he had any legal cause to show why judgments should not be pronounced against him. The judgment is therefore defective and is remitted to the trial court to have the necessary inquiry made and a valid judgment thereafter entered.

DeGroat was charged with having entered the Sherman home on February 27, 1955. It was alleged a gun was taken from the premises and later sold to a pawn shop in Kingston for $10. At that time DeGroat was allegedly accompanied by Emerson DuBois. During the trial DuBois testified DeGroat had admitted entrance to the Sherman premises and taking the gun. The appellate court held that "the burglary in the third degree was established beyond a reasonable doubt" and that the credibility of the witness DuBois "was for the jury" to decide.

Following the conviction of DeGroat he later became involved in another offense, was indicted and tried for rape. On the second trial Joseph Avis appeared as defense counsel and APRIL FOOLERY—Nobody knows for sure just when the custom of setting aside a day for foolishness originated. But it's old. People in ancient India used to play tricks on each other during the feast of Holi, which falls on March 31. The French (1) can be blamed for our modern April Fool's Day observance. Back in 1564, Charles IX adopted the reformed calendar making the year begin on Jan. 1 instead of April 1. It had been the custom to exchange gifts on New Year's Day, so wags took to sending their neighbors mock gifts—like a ball of cotton dipped in chocolate to make it look like candy. The victim was tagged a poisson d'avril, or April fish. A romanticlegend has it that April Fool's Day saved the lives of the Duke of Lorraine and his wife. Imprisoned in Nantes (2), they escaped in peasant garb. At the gate a woman recognized them and called to the guard. Knowing it was April 1, the guard merely laughed. In England and Scotland (3) the custom, caught on in the 18th Century. In Scotland, April Fools are called gowks, or cuckoos. Some kind of fool's errand was the favorite trick. But no matter who started it all, April Fool's Day jokes (4) appear likely to continue with us for many generations. And most of us will probably fall for the old gags again this year.

Time Essential for Premier

Khrushchev Pins Hopes
On Sensational Events

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—These next few months are a good time for Nikita Khrushchev—the new one-man boss of Russia—to produce sensations which might range from space flights to startling maneuvers in world affairs.

The first sensation has already occurred. Russia announced yesterday—when there was worldwide agitation for such a move—that it would voluntarily ban nuclear weapons tests.

This could have been done last week—there were rumors it was coming—before Khrushchev had been made premier in place of Nikolai Bulganin. The latter had been only a front-man for Khrushchev anyway.

That the announcement was delayed until Khrushchev became full boss, in name as well as in fact, would indicate he attached importance to the timing: after he became premier.

Time means a lot to Khrushchev because it's running out on him: He's 64. He has taken on himself, singlehandedly, the future of Russian communism and the progress of communism everywhere.

New sensational Russian scientific achievements would solidify his position at home—giving him the kind of Russian devotion and spirit he needs for internal success—and enormously increase his prestige and influence abroad.

Bold diplomatic strokes—particularly in the direction of peace—not only would give communism a terrific and persuasive propaganda value but perhaps throw him into the position of world leadership among men, if not among nations.

At this moment for various reasons the United States, which has leadership of the Western world, at least, is rocking along stodgily

3-Story Building
Will Lose One Floor

SCHENEVUS (AP)—The three-story building of the Schenevus Valley Masonic Lodge will become a two-story structure—the hard way.

The second and third floors of the frame building will be lifted by giant machines and held suspended in air while the first floor is demolished.

The two upper floors, for 50 years the lodge rooms, then will be lowered until the second floor becomes the new ground floor.

and unimaginatively, nursing the status quo, taking one propaganda beating after another from Russia.

Stalin, Russia's last one-man boss, had far more time than Khrushchev to rivet down his leadership indisputably. He was 45 when he took over at Lenin's death in 1924.

It took him at least a decade after that—through one by one elimination of his rivals and finally through mass purges—to give him the absolute control he wanted to shape the Russian future.

But Khrushchev several years ago—by his public repudiation of Stalin's bloody tactics—put himself in the position of a man who will have to depend on achievement rather than on bloody violence for success.

It's likely then, that he will try a bold and imaginative road. He's shown plenty of boldness and imagination already.

Joey Sobsey Says:

I know why my daddy sells good tires — he's a good daddy, — that's why. I'm too small to know much about tires, but I hear a lot about tires at home and when my daddy takes me down Broadway to his "office." He spends so much time there I just had to see why. He has a lot to do all day and I don't see him at all many days because I'm asleep when he comes home. Maybe if you bought more tires from my daddy he could stay home and won't have to go out at all. I'd love that. So why don't you buy your tires from my daddy—he's a good daddy and he must have good tires.

Miss Jean Louise Acker, daughter of Mrs. John Acker of East Kingston, became the bride of Raymond John Galvin, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Galvin, Paramus, N. J., Saturday, March 22 at 2:30 p. m. in St. Mary's Church.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Edward I. Farrelly.

Barbara Bruck was soloist for the occasion.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, John Acker of Kingston. For her wedding, she wore a white chiffon gown styled with a long torso, draped waistline, short shirred sleeves and long bouffant skirt. A cap of nylon tulle in leaf design held a fingertip veil. Soloists Are Named for Presentation Here Of Stainer's 'Crucifixion' at Old Dutch

RICHARD KUELLING

JOHN A. McCULLOUGH

Two featured soloists, John A. McCullough and Richard Kuelling, will return to the Old Dutch Church Good Friday night for the traditional singing of Sir John Stainer's "The Crucifixion" at 8 o'clock. The choruses will be sung by the church senior choir under the direction of Mrs. Willard Burke, minister of music. Mrs. William E. Ryland will be at the organ.

In great demand as a guest soloist, Mr. McCullough on Palm Sunday night sang the solos in the Easter cantata "Olivet to Calvary" at the First Reformed Church, Hudson; and will repeat this Good Friday afternoon in Catskill.

He often sings and is guest soloist with the Catskill Glee Club. He has sung as guest soloist with the Hendrick Hudson Male Chorus, Hudson; Treble Choralists, Catskill; Ontario Summer Chorus; Lyric Choristers of this city. He is a member and past president of Mendelssohn Club and is a featured soloist in the annual Kiwanis Kapers. He has sung the "Crucifixion" solos a number of times at Redeemer Lutheran Church, this city, and Middletown Baptist Church.

Last summer as soloist with the Yankee Male Chorus, Mr. McCullough sang in several concerts in Vermont and New Hampshire. Of this singing at Walpole, N. H., the Bellows Falls Times reporter said, "it might well be a vocation instead of an avocation . . . a beautiful tenor voice." Mr. McCullough is a local architect. He studies voice with Leonard Stine and is president of Community Concerts Association.

Kuelling at Tanglewood
Richard Kuelling, bass baritone, of New York City, will be remembered as the bass soloist for "The Messiah" presented at the church last December. He is studying in the graduate division of Juilliard School of Music and is heard frequently as soloist throughout the New York area.

Mr. Kuelling was graduated with a bachelor of science degree in voice from Juilliard last May. His voice study has been with Mack Harrell and Sergius Kagen. He has sung leading roles in all major opera and oratorio productions at the Juilliard school during the past two years.

Last summer Mr. Kuelling was a member of the Tanglewood Opera Theatre and appeared in leading roles in La Boheme, Marriage of Figaro, and Carmen.

The singing of Stainer's "Crucifixion" on Good Friday was established at Old Dutch Church many years ago under W. Whiting Fredenburgh, then organist and choirmaster. The service was held at 3 p. m. each Good Friday afternoon in observance of the hour of the Lord's death. Although not always chosen as the Easter cantata, the "Crucifixion" has been done more frequently than any other at the church. In recent years the evening hour was set in deference to the three hour Good Friday services of the uptown churches at Fair Street Reformed Church in the afternoon.

Sawyer Debaters 5th In Syracuse Contest

Six Saugerties High School students reached the finals of the New York State District National Forensic League Championship at Syracuse Friday and Saturday. The Debate squad of Janet Nickerson, Sally Davi, Anthony Francello and Lowell Mayone was eliminated early in the upset riddled opening rounds.

Arlington High School paced by Joseph Liggera and Glenn Van Bramer (1957 runner's up) captured the debate title from Liberty. A surprise finalist among the casualties in the elimination were heavily favored Jamestown, perennial contenders Jeffersonville, Poughkeepsie, Newburgh and the "dark horse" New Hartford.

Jamestown earned the first "leg" on the sweepstakes or tournament trophy by impressive victories in the speech events. Saugerties finished 5th among 13 schools entered.

Six speech categories were featured: Oratorical interpretation, original oratory, dramatic interpretation, humorous interpretation, radio - announcing, boys' extemporaneous and girls' extemporaneous.

Hannah McLennen of Saugerties finished 3rd in oratorical interpretation won by boys from Jamestown and Aquinas. Fred Hornbeck also captured a third with his original oration on "America's Economic Freedom." Paul Kruger eliminated in the boys' extemporaneous captured 3rd radio announcing. Eileen Cahill and Carolyn Roeser advanced to the finals in dramatic interpretation and humorous interpretation respectively and finished 5th. Thomas Hull advanced to the radio announcing finals. Daryl Hargreaves and Nancy Overbagh also represented Saugerties but could not get beyond the semifinals.

Saugerties final placement of 5th is subject to review in the National Headquarters. The Sawyers scored more points for the tourney trophy than last year but finished lower in final rank (1957-3rd). The six speech finalists and three final placements as third are the first for Saugerties since 1956 when Patricia Cunningham scored both in dramatic and humorous interpretation.

Fails to Get Promise

LONDON (AP)—The Daily Sketch said today that Queen Elizabeth has failed to get Princess Margaret to promise never to see Peter Townsend again.

This explains two long private interviews between the Queen and her sister over the weekend. The Sketch said. The sisters were together at the royal lodge in Windsor, the Queen's country home about 25 miles from London.

Good Taste Today

By EMILY POST

Author of "Children Are People" and "Etiquette," etc.

AN UNWANTED COCKTAIL

Dear Mrs. Post: I am often invited to business luncheons. Invariably there is a cocktail at each one's place at table. I do not drink anything alcoholic. Would it be proper to offer my cocktail to the person sitting next to me, or should I just leave it untouched at my place?

Answer: Cocktails should certainly not be poured ahead of time and allowed to grow warm waiting at each place at table. They should be passed, at which time you could refuse an alcoholic one and take a tomato or fruit juice one, which should also be on the tray. When you find one at your place as you describe, you may offer it to either of the persons sitting next to you who has finished his (or her) own, or you may leave it untouched to be taken away by the waiter.

Notice of Divorce

Dear Mrs. Post: I have just recently divorced my husband and as I have many friends as well as acquaintances throughout the country, I would like to notify them of this since they will have no way of hearing about it otherwise. Could I send out some sort of announcement to this effect, or just what would you suggest under the circumstances?

Answer: Further than writing personal notes to your really intimate friends, there is nothing you can do. It would be unthinkable to send out general announcements.

Seating Parents at Reception
Dear Mrs. Post: At the wedding reception (sit-down collation) should the parents of the bride and groom be seated together at one table? If so, who else is seated at this table with them? Wouldn't it be pleasanter if each family had its own table and best friends seated with them?

Answer: There is no fixed rule, but it is most usual—especially when the groom's family are strangers—for the bride's parents as hosts, to seat the bridegroom's parents at their table. Any grandparents would be seated at this same table, and possibly the clergyman (and his wife).

When to take pictures of the wedding is explained in "Formal Wedding Procedure," leaflet E-2. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to Dept. EP, c/o The Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

1,010 Leave Ship After Fire Occurs

OSLO, Norway (AP) — A Norwegian immigrant ship with more than 1,000 persons aboard was gutted by fire in the Indian Ocean off Africa's east coast last night. All aboard were rescued but one German passenger died in a lifeboat of a heart attack.

Capt. Alf Haakon Feste, skipper of the 8,786-ton Skaubryn, abandoned his ship after fire erupted in her engine room and got quickly out of control. Passengers and crew were taken aboard the City of Sydney, a 7,003-ton vessel from Liverpool. They were to be transferred to the Italian liner Roma later today.

Feste reported that the fire broke out about 10:30 p. m. "All attempts to extinguish the fire were hopeless," he radioed. "All life boats were launched. Everybody is safe except a German passenger who died of a heart attack in a lifeboat."

The Sydney's captain messaged he hoped the fire might abate and some attempt could be made to save the Skaubryn's hull. The Skaubryn caught fire en route to Australia with 1,010 migrants from Germany, Malta and Scandinavia. She was owned by I. M. Skaugen of Oslo. She was reported about 300 miles southeast of the island of Socotra when the fire started.

We hear that a homedead girl really makes the best home. How about checking up on your gift to the Red Cross—and make the check as big as possible. Mom and dad likely will agree that what this country needs is fewer endurance contests on the phone. The average man knows but little about women's clothes but doesn't care much about them when he sees the price tags.

Why We Say--

PIG AUCTION: When you give away a secret, you "let the cat out of the bag." The expression goes back to country fairs where baby pigs were often auctioned off. The little pigs were given to the buyer already wrapped in bags. But sharpsters sometimes substituted a cat for the pig. Thus, anyone giving away this secret, "let the cat out of the bag."

Asst. U. S. Atty. George H. Le-wald told the court yesterday Ting actually was a citizen of China.

Flags Train in Time

RENSSELAER (AP)—James A. Whittam of Albany was backing his car off a railroad crossing yesterday when his rear wheels slipped off the pavement onto the track bed.

Whittam was pondering his fate when suddenly, far down the track, he heard a train roaring down on him.

He jumped from his car, hurried along the rails, and managed to flag the New York City-bound express.

The engineer, unidentified, hoped from his cab, helped Whittam push his car free, and both went their way in the early morning darkness.

TV Drama Will Tell Life of Vincent Tracy

By CHARLES MERCER
NEW YORK (AP)—"Alcoholism is not a disease," says Vincent Tracy. "With me it was a softening of my will, a loss of guts."

The remarkable fall and rise of Vincent Tracy will be dramatized on television next Sunday when "G. E. Theater" (CBS-TV, 9 p. m.) presents Ronald Reagan in "No Hiding Place," based on Beth Day's book about Tracy's experience.

Brilliant Executive
At 30, Tracy was a brilliant New York executive. At 35 he had drunk himself onto the Bowery. There, in the course of 18 months, he attempted suicide three times and was hospitalized for alcoholism 27 times. Today, at 46, Tracy is an ebullient teetotaler who is dedicating his life to helping other so-called incurable alcoholics.

At Tracy Farms in Ravena, N. Y., he has given more than 2,000 people a new lease on living. After the world pronounces someone a hopeless alcoholic, Tracy takes him—or her—to Ravena. ("No white-coated attendants following you around. Come and go as you like. Take a drink if you want to. But somehow people don't want to.") His record of alcoholic cures, he says, is over 90 per cent.

"Inspired Acting"
Returning from Hollywood the other day where he had watched the filming of the television show, Tracy said: "Watching Reagan play me took me back. It did something to me that hadn't been done since I came off the Bowery. He does an inspired piece of acting. I came out of that studio and started to cry."

In the course of a long discussion of alcoholism, Tracy said these things:
"I don't believe in prohibition because you can't legislate morality."
"Just Can't Cope"

"Alcoholism is the problem of mankind's inability to cope with life. That inability is probably the number one problem that big business faces today. It takes bright young men and moves them up fast, heaping them with responsibilities, and too often the men just can't cope."
"In my experience no occupations are more alcoholically hazardous than any others. I've seen 'em all. Yes, farmers too—plenty of farmers."

Two Ways of Control
"There are two ways to control alcoholism—abstinence or moderation. For me it's abstinence. . . maybe there really are 'social drinkers' who only take one or two once in a while. Personally I don't know any."

"I'd say that 'social drinkers' pay a price for drinking. They often do things they shouldn't do. They lose jobs and they get divorced. They insist they're only 'social drinkers,' but what's the difference between them and alcoholics?"
Effect, Not Cause
"I believe that most alcoholics are people of superior intellect. They're perfectionists. That's why they drink. Life looks more perfect when seen through the bottom of a glass."
"Alcohol is an effect, not a cause. Man is the cause. He must face the most difficult problem of all: man. To see yourself as you really are takes tremendous courage. To see others as they are demands great charity. Only the intellect can accomplish it. Alcohol dims rather than clarifies your view."

Caruso's Drop 83 to 79 Tilt To Morgan Fuel

One of the Kingston Invitational basketball tourney's "dark horses" was eliminated last night by a veteran Morgan Fuel quintet of Poughkeepsie, 83 to 79. Caruso's Insurance looked good in defeat and may have turned the tide with a break here and there.

But the scholastic stars could not overcome all the obstacles and despite a last quarter surge, went down to defeat in fighting fashion.

Wednesday's action is as follows:

(7:15 p. m.)
Byrne Chevrolet vs. Van Voorhis Lumber.

(8:30 p. m.)
Economy Cleaners vs. Pine Plains.

Semi-Finals
(Thursday)
Winner of first game against Morgan Fuel, and Stamford K of C against winner of second tilt.

Van Kleeck Stars
The Bridge City squad was paced by Pete Van Kleeck and Jack Dawson who countered 22 and 21 points, respectively. After a tight first half in which Caruso's walked off with a slim 40 to 38 halftime edge, the Dutchess quintet surged out in front during the third quarter and controlled a 60 to 55 spread at the start of the fourth period.

The final heat was nip and tuck, but the loss of George Uhl and Tony Grimaldi on fouls hurt the locals. Despite this handicap, Johnny Lawrence, and Jack Thompson, former Liberty High aces, endeavored to keep it close. Grimaldi had 23 to set the pace for the losers.

Heavy Slate
Byrne Chevies face a rugged playing schedule if they get by the Fishkill quintet tomorrow night. A victory will advance them to the semi-finals on Thursday against Morgan Fuel, practically the same team they will meet Sunday night in the auditorium in the first game of the Hudson Valley playoffs. The Kingston tourney finals are on Saturday, which could end up in another Chevies-Pine Plains meeting, providing the latter beats a tough Stamford K of C and Kingston's pride wins its two preceding games.

'Moose' Shaub, Engle Named to National High All-American

COUPLE OF MARVS—Two Kingston High grid stars, Marvin "Moose" Shaub, left, and Marvin Engle, proudly display the certificate sent them by the Wigwam Wisemen of America for their selection to the National High School All-American football squad.

Kingston High Stars Picked For Grid Game

Marvin "Moose" Shaub and Marvin Engle have been selected to the 10th annual National High School All-American football game, sponsored by the Wigwam Wisemen of America.

The two Kingston High grid-ders are eligible to participate in the annual East-West all-star football game at Memphis, Tenn., on August 2.

The Maroons standouts, who graduate this year, played a big part in Coach Bill Burke's two undefeated seasons.

If selected by the coaches of the All-Star game and members of the selecting committee, they will be furnished expenses for transportation and living for workouts prior to the game.

Only 44 boys will be selected for the two squads. Before selection is possible, the grid-ders must submit a detailed questionnaire concerning scholastic standings and athletic activities.

Entry Fees Dispute Ends Tam O'Shanter

CHICAGO (AP)—George S. May, who has distributed nearly $2,000,000 in golf purses, has canceled the Tam O'Shanter world tournaments — richest in the game's history.

Entry Fees
May's action, announced last night in a letter to the Professional Golfers' Assn. of America, wiped out the 1958 prize list, worth $210,000.

May said financial disagreement with the PGA, particularly over the organization's demand for entry fees, was the reason for calling an end to the spiraling jackpots inaugurated in 1941.

"We are taking this action because we are being deprived of revenue—entry fees — which we sorely need to keep on presenting the world's richest golf tournament," said May in a letter to J. Edwin Carter, tournament bureau manager of the PGA.

May's letter, which rejected tournament contracts drawn up by the PGA, said in part:

Cancel Out
"We have decided to cancel out all of our tournaments this year. This includes the All American Open for $30,000, the World Invitational for $105,000, the Women's All American Open for $8,000, the Women's World Invitational for $17,000, and the $50,000 contract for the winner of the World Invitational amounting to a total of $210,000 in cash prizes. Also in this connection, we are canceling out the All American Amateur and the Amateur World Invitational."

May said last year "our entry fees totaled $22,115" and pointed out that the PGA this year is not collecting entry fees from numerous tournaments, including the Los Angeles Open, the National Open, the Masters, the Houston Tournament and the Dallas Open.

"None of these purses are over $50,000," he said. "Why should we have to pay a heavy penalty because we have been the world's richest golf tournament?"

In Atlanta, Harold Sargent, national PGA president, said May's decision came as "a great surprise." Sargent said he had received no official notice from May and would have no extended comment until he had conferred with other PGA officials.

"Our relationship with Mr. May has been on the most friendly, amicable and cooperative basis," Sargent added.

Gene Woodling to Orioles for Doby, Yogi Berra, Two Red Sox Injured

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Fearless Frank Lane, whose player deals are like a fisherman's lies—they get bigger as time passes—is up to the five-man size today after ending his long pursuit of Larry Doby with a swap that brought the veteran outfielder back where he started.

Doby, 33, who spent his first nine years of major league ball with Cleveland, returned to the Indians last night after a two-year absence. The deal with Baltimore also added pitcher Don Ferrarese to Lane's rebuilding program while sending outfielders Gene Woodling and Dick Williams and pitcher Bud Daley to the Orioles.

Agree to Swap
Oddly enough, Lane couldn't get his hands on Doby until he hooked up with Cleveland, the club that wouldn't let Larry go while Lane was with the Chicago White Sox.

It wasn't until a month after Lane quit the White Sox in 1955 to take over as general manager of the St. Louis Cardinals that the Indians agreed to swap Doby to Chicago for Chico Carrasquel and Jim Busby.

Last November, Lane quit the Cards and replaced Hank Greenberg as GM of the Indians. In December, the White Sox traded Doby to the Orioles.

This latest deal, his second in as many days, is roughly No. 260 for Lane in the American League.

While Lane and field boss-General Manager Paul Richards of the Orioles were busy bartering yesterday in Arizona, the Florida camps were busy issuing bulletins on injuries.

Six Injuries
The Boston Red Sox were struck twice. Righthander Tom Brewer, their biggest winner for the past two seasons, suffered a hairline finger fracture when struck on his pitching hand during batting practice. And Heywood Sullivan, who had been groomed to take over the catching job, suffered a fractured finger when struck by a foul tip in an exhibition game with Washington.

Yogi Hit
Catcher Yogi Berra of the New York Yankees suffered a split of the webbing between his middle and ring finger on his right hand from a foul tip during a game with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Berra's injury isn't too serious, but Sullivan probably will be out about six weeks, Brewer at least three.

The Red Sox won their eighth straight with an 8-3 decision over the Senators. Gene Stephens, a stand-in for ailing Ted Williams, was 3-for-4, one a home run, and drove in a pair.

Four unearned runs, three on a boot by outfielder Norm Siebern, gave the Dodgers a 7-3 victory over the Yankees.

Hillman Goes Route
Dave Hillman became the first pitcher to go nine innings for the Chicago Cubs and breezed with a three-hitter for a 1-0 victory over Baltimore.

Preston Ward, taking over first for the injured Vic Wertz, drove in three runs for Cleveland in an 8-2 romp over San Francisco.

Cards Blanked
Billy Pierce and Jim Wilson blanked the St. Louis Cardinals on one hit as the White Sox won 7-0 in the first game of a double-header. The Cards then belted Wilson when he started the nightcap and made off with a 7-5 victory in a six-inning contest. Pierce gave up only a single in seven innings while getting home run support from Jim Ladis and Jim Rivera.

Ed Bailey's double in the ninth gave Cincinnati a 2-1 victory over Philadelphia and Robin Roberts, a home run by Frank Thomas, an error, sacrifice and Hank Foiles' single meant two ninth-inning runs for Pittsburgh and a 4-3 decision over Milwaukee. Clutch relief by Ray Herbert saved a 5-4 Kansas City victory over Detroit.

Kid Bassey 2-1 To Retain Title In Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The world featherweight championship and fierce national pride will be at stake tonight when champion Hogan (Kid) Bassey goes against Ricardo (Pajarito) Moreno for 15 rounds or less at Wrigley Field.

Bassey, the 25-year-old champion from the British colony of Nigeria in West Africa, remained a 2-1 favorite today to retain the title in his first defense as king of the 126-pounders.

Promoter Cal Eaton was confident 20,000 or more fans would attend, contributing to a gate of $200,000 or more.

Moreno, the 21-year-old knock-out sensation from Mexico City, has the backing of thousands of his countrymen who have come north for the fight. He also has two unusually large fists.

The Bassey camp was calmly confident of victory, and in the case of Hogan's manager, George Biddles, a little contemptuous of Moreno's ability.

Bassey, however, would only say for publication: "I shall do my best and I hope to win."

The belligerent tone from the Moreno forces was set by Pajarito (Little Bird) himself. Told that Bassey's handlers had refused to use a Mexican-made glove, the Bird exclaimed: "I don't care what kind of gloves we use, or if we use any gloves at all."

Bassey goes into the scrap with 20 straight victories and an overall record of 61 fights, 50 wins (17 by kayo), 10 losses, one draw. Moreno in his 33 matches has won all of his 29 victories by knockouts and has lost only two bouts.

Service Center B Closes Gap by 1; Vols Lose Three

Service Center B's moved to within one game of first place Glasco Fire Company by blanking Trinity 3 to 0 in Monday night's Saugerties Darts League games. The Glasco Vols dropped three games to the Centerville firemen.

Third place Katsbaan suffered a 2 to 1 split at the hands of Glasco A.C. West Camp swept Cedar Grove 3 to 0 and picked up ground on idle Quarryville. Ruby in its fight to stay in the first five and the league playoffs, whitewashed Cementon 3 to 0.

Other scores: Centerville 3, Mt. Marion 0 and Veteran 2, Service Center A's 1.

Each team in the league must file the name of its all-star for the all-star game played prior to the Saugerties Darts League "World Series" scheduled at West Camp parish hall, Monday, May 5, following the annual banquet.

Names of all-stars and averages must be registered with the league secretary Joseph Sinnott on or before April 21. The pennant winner will submit two all-star names. To be eligible all-stars must have played at least 70 games in the regular season.

Pancho Beats Head, Takes 26-23 Lead

ATLANTA (AP)—Pancho Gonzales believes he is playing the best tennis of his career and has a good chance of coming out on top in his prolonged series of matches with Lew Hoad of Australia.

The old pro demonstrated his point last night by beating Hoad 3-6, 6-2, 6-1 in Alexander Memorial Coliseum before an estimated 4,800 persons.

The victory sent Gonzales out in front 26 matches to 23 in the professional tour that started in Australia.

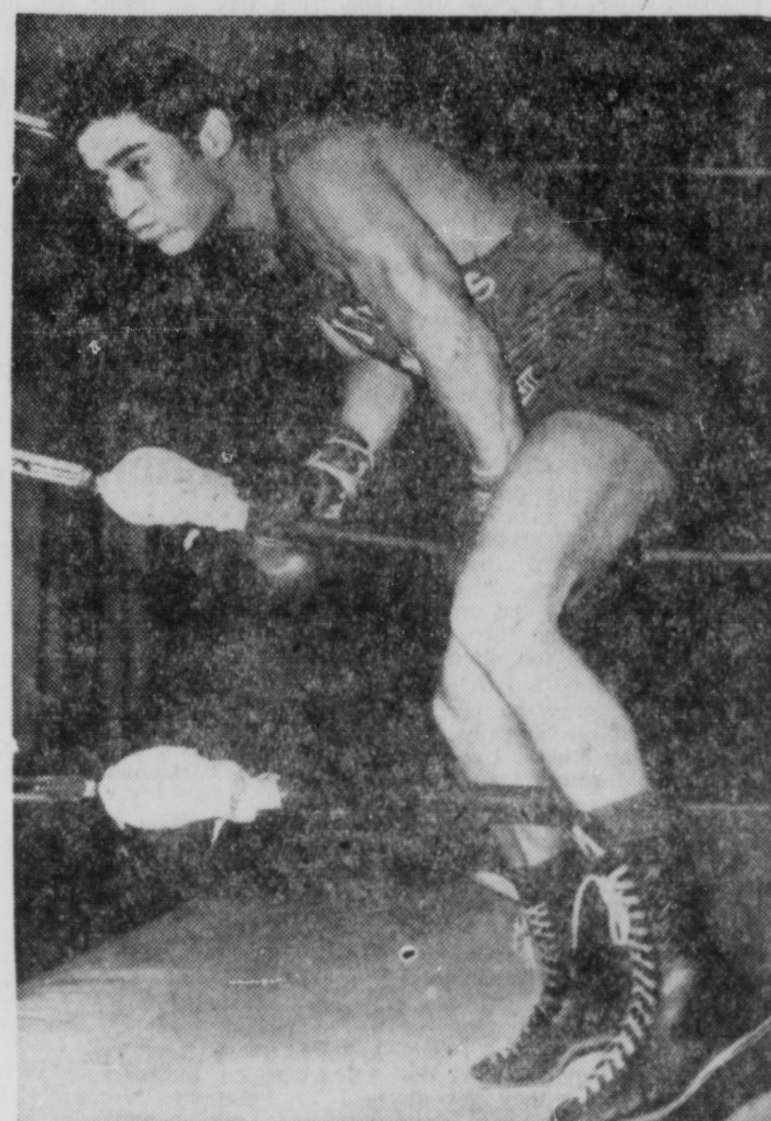

Parents and interested persons are invited to attend a meeting of the Jaycee Little League at 8 o'clock tonight in the courthouse. Parents are reminded that the league has expanded to six teams and there are openings for boys who are eligible.

Wallman Denies Boxing Link With Carbo

NEW YORK (AP)—Fight manager Hymie (The Mink) Wallman, who spends most of his time in the fur business, not only denied he was a front man today, but claimed the district attorney's men could be more thorough.

Assistant Dist. Atty. Alfred J. Scotti had claimed Wallman was a front man for Frankie Carbo, an underworld figure. Scotti, in fact, called Carbo "the underworld czar of boxing in this state" and added that he was an absentee boss who spends most of his time in Florida.

"I have never been a front man for anyone," scowled Wallman. "The fighters in my stable are my own and no one else's."

Then his attorney, Michael Kern, added that the DA's men "had overlooked as many records as they took" when they grabbed Wallman's papers last week.

Wallman, who managed Alex Miteff, Ike Chestnut, Orlando Zuleta and Charlie Cotton among the headlines, turned the overlooked records in to the grand jury investigating boxing yesterday. He was one of the dozen or so figures subpoenaed by Dist.

Att. Frank Hogan in an investigation of professional boxing.

Admitting he has known Carbo for 36 years, Wallman nevertheless said he never had any business dealings with him, and furthermore didn't even know where Frankie lived.

"I don't think anyone knows where he lives," said Wallman with finality.

Kern made a motion before General Sessions Judge John A. Mullen to have the seized records returned. Judge Mullen said he would have to study the records before ruling on the motion.

Harry Markson, managing director of the International Boxing Club, IBC matchmaker Billy Brown and his assistant, Jack Brennan, also turned their records over to the authorities.

Five Merchants Cop 2nd Gross at Liberty

Capture $270 in Lions Club 'Cap Win High Net

The Five Merchants, Hudson Valley Bowling League entry, repeated for the second straight year as net champions of the 10th annual five-man handicap tournament sponsored by the Liberty Lions Club.

The local keggers finished second in the gross division, good for $250, and just missed carrying away the top $350 first prize save for a solid seven-pin tap by Tom Carlino. With the team's $20 for net team single of 1046, the quintet returned Sunday night with $270 in prize money.

The team gross of 3236 pins was just 25 short of the gross champions, but its 2957 net was by far the best score rolled in the sweepstakes.

Capt. Larry Petersen led the "money" attack with a 626 series, but it was Tom Amato's four-timer in the final game, despite a 538 series, which took the Five Merchants out of the woods.

Carlino crashed games of 208, 201 and 203 for his 612, but as usual came up with his usual remark after a good series "the alleys just weren't right." Petersen and Buster Ferraro, with 626 and 610 respectively, found no fault with the way the ball was hooking. "Muggsy" Ruzzo came up with a respectable 571 on the strength of a 220 finale.

The scores:

B. Ferraro	195	214	201	610
Ruzzo	165	186	220	571
Amato	180	159	199	538

Records Best Score in Booster Class Since '54

SYRACUSE (AP)—The first score to show real promise of gaining a championship in the 55th American Bowling Congress Tournament was up on the standing board today.

Perry's News of Rome, N. Y., blasted out a 949-995-862-2806 series in the third day of action to take command of the Booster Division. It was the best score in the 850-and-under average category to be recorded since 1954. Rea Cress of Junction City, Kan., won the booster championship in Fort Worth, Tex., last year with 2796.

First 600 Series
Sam Bosco paced the team with a 610 series. It was the first 600 series for the 41-year-old auto mechanic since he rolled a 632 at the age of 17. Perry's will be challenged by over 2500 booster teams in the remaining 69 days of the tournament.

Phillips Lead
The Phillips Equipment team of Harrisburg, Pa., clung to the lead on the open team division with the 2945 they posted Sunday. The Rotary Gas team of Elmira, N.Y., mustered a 2911 Monday to move into second place.

Jack Blevins of Macomb, Ill., claimed the early reign of the Singles Division after rolling a 172-244-267-683 set. The 31-year-old carpenter's finale was the highest single game of the tournament thus far.

All-Events Leader
Norm Wooster, 43, a postal clerk from Warren, Pa., chalked up a nine-game total of 1841 to become the new All-Events leader. Jim Morrison and John Fortin of Brooklyn, who collaborated for a 1257 Sunday, retained the leadership of the Doubles Division.

Bob Shelightner Crashes 222-617, Linnartz 226-616, Otto Shaller 614

The maples rattled well at Ferraro's Bowlerama last night with three classic "600" series registered in the City Minor and IBM Superior circuits. Bob Shelightner crashed a 617 on games of 215, 170 and 222 in the Minor; Otto Schaller 200, 203 and 211 for 614, and Fred Linnartz 211, 179 and 226-616.

The lassies did exceptionally well in the Junior Major, with Adeline Ferraro leading the way with 200, 188 and 137-525; Chris Gallop 516, and Lorraine Ferraro's 516 on games of 187, 170 and 159, which almost insures harmony in the Jack Ferraro household and the expense of a new ball. Lorraine was about ready to "ditch" that pumpkin she was throwing, but it appears now she will give it another try before taking the drastic steps.

PAT HAYMAN converted the 2-4-10 split and came up with a fine 205 after games of 122 and 146 for 473. Something New for Roller Fans—15-Mile Marathon

It's something new and unique for roller skating fans—a 15-mile marathon to be staged at Kingston Skateland on Cornell Street starting at 10:30 p. m. April 10.

If inquiries concerning the derby mean anything, there will be a deluge of contestants for the many prizes to be awarded at the conclusion of the endurance event.

It is the first time in Kingston history that anything of this kind has been staged and it was planned at the insistence of rabid roller fans who expressed an opinion that it would have tremendous appeal.

Further information concerning the event may be obtained at Skateland.

Elgin Baylor to Continue Studies

NEW YORK—Seattle University's All-America basketball star, Elgin Baylor, now says he intends to return to school to complete his senior year rather than turn professional.

Although he is eligible to be drafted by a National Basketball Assn. club and had indicated interest in the pros, Baylor said Sunday night on a national television show he plans to return to Seattle.

But he added that he has always dreamed of playing with the pros and will consider it after he graduates.

Last week, while visiting at his home in Washington, D. C., Baylor indicated he would turn pro soon. Saturday night here he said he had made no definite decision.

Bobby Jones returned home from the hospital Monday after weekend treatment for what was described as a circulatory collapse.

His doctor said he expected Jones would be able to go to Augusta for the Masters Tournament which he helped found. The tournament starts Thursday.

The doctor recommended a couple of quiet days at home but saw no reason why Jones should not be able to resume his normal activities after that.

Hank Sauer Is Ready, Beams Bill Rigney

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—"The big guy looks ready," declared San Francisco Giants Manager "Bill" Rigney. "He's got his eye on the ball and taking that good swing."

Rigney referred to one of the Giants' best investments of all time—38-year-old Hank Sauer, starting his 21st season in organized baseball.

He signed on with the club in New York last season as a free agent so there wasn't any initial outlay of cash to another team to acquire him. In the words of a Giant official, "He didn't cost a nickel."

Then he appeared in 127 games, hit .259 with 26 homers and 76 runs-batted-in. So the 6-3 fellow who in 1952 was the National League's Most Valuable Player with the Chicago Cubs promptly won new honors with the Giants as the Comeback Player of 1957.

Having cracked five home runs to date this spring, Sauer declares, "I'm hitting halfway decent. It always took me a long time to get around and this spring was no exception. I remember one spring when I got just two hits. If I did that now I wouldn't be hanging around long."

The big fellow started his professional career in 1937, but didn't reach the majors to stay until 1948 although he spent parts of three seasons with Cincinnati before that. During 1948-55 he was with the Cubs and in 1956 with the St. Louis Cardinals. When released by the Cards, the Giants gave him the chance for his comeback.

Castro Launches First War Phase To Oust Batista
HAVANA, Cuba (AP)—Rebel leader Fidel Castro today launched the first phase of his "total war" to oust President Fulgencio Batista.

Batista meanwhile received a grant of special emergency powers from Congress to counter spreading strikes and rebel attacks against the land's communications. The House and Senate approved a measure that now goes to Batista for his signature. It becomes law after publication in the official government gazette.

Warms of Strike
Castro called on Cubans to paralyze communications in the first step toward a nationwide general strike he said would be called at "the right moment." That might be delayed until after Easter, rebels in Havana said, but Castro proclaimed "a state of total war" between the people of Cuba and the "tyranny of Batista" beginning at midnight Saturday.

Castro ordered his followers to fire without warning on all highway and railway transport moving today. Drivers and railway workers in eastern Cuba began leaving their jobs after reporting rebel threats.

"Thousands of armed men" soon would march on Santiago, capital of Cuba's easternmost Oriente Province, Castro threatened. The government replied with further police and troop reinforcements.

Batista Summons Aids
Batista called a meeting of his council of ministers today to consider fresh ways of meeting the rebellion, possibly including a declaration of martial law. Constitutional guarantees already are suspended.

Batista's national police seized a shipment of guns valued at more than $100,000 yesterday at a house on the coast 12 miles west of Havana. No arrests were made but 15 rebels are being hunted, the police said.

Sullivan Woman Is Accused of Stealing $6,903

MONTICELLO — Mrs. Joanne Barber, wife of Bethel Township supervisor, is accused of stealing $6,903 in public funds.

She was arraigned yesterday on 25 counts of forgery and grand larceny and released in $2,500 bail for trial in the June term of Sullivan County Court.

Authorities said her husband, Harold A. Barber, a Republican, has made full restitution of the money. There was no information available on what his wife did with the money she allegedly stole from August, 1956 to December, 1957.

A lengthy indictment, handed up by the county grand jury last Friday and opened yesterday, accused Mrs. Barber of forging a series of fraudulent checks drawn on the township's highway fund. These checks were duplicates of legitimate checks made out to creditors of the fund.

Authorities said the check juggling was discovered in a routine audit of the township's financial records by the State Division of Audit and Control.

TV Sets to Havana

WASHINGTON — Chairman John C. Doerfer of the Federal Communications Commission says he knew very little about favors, ranging from TV sets to entertainment in Havana, accorded the FCC by the National Broadcasting Co.

Doerfer took that stand yesterday after House investigators produced a list of favors by the big radio and TV network to members and employees of the FCC, which regulates the broadcasting industry.

The list, supplied to the special House subcommittee by NBC Vice President Thomas E. Ervin, included such items as at least 50 social functions between 1949 and 1957.

The list also cited transistor radios for commissioners, three TV sets—one of them for color television—for Doerfer, 52 Christmas presents for FCC people in 1956, prizes for the FCC girls' bowling league and $42 for "entertainment in Havana." There was no elaboration of the Havana item.

The list was read into the record by Robert W. Lishman, the subcommittee's chief counsel, when Doerfer returned to the witness stand to give some details of his travel expenses.

The subcommittee, investigating allegations of misconduct by some FCC members, questioned Doerfer for three days in February about his expenses and related matters.

Doerfer said he knew very little about what NBC had done for his agency. He said he didn't know, for example, about prizes ranging from $18.25 to $32.50 for the girls' bowling league.

"I was aware," the FCC chairman said, "that some of the commissioners received Christmas presents."

Doerfer was chided by Chairman Harris (D-Ark) for having made 35 or 40 trips during his five years on the commission.

Harris said the travel by Doerfer and some other commissioners "seems to me to have been a little excessive" and that some such trips have "too much the aspect of a vacation."

Doerfer said his trips include such things as one-day inspections of military projects. He said commissioners turn down three invitations for every one they accept.

Doerfer was chided by Chairman Harris (D-Ark) for having made 35 or 40 trips during his five years on the commission.

Harris said the travel by Doerfer and some other commissioners "seems to me to have been a little excessive" and that some such trips have "too much the aspect of a vacation."

Doerfer said his trips include such things as one-day inspections of military projects. He said commissioners turn down three invitations for every one they accept.

Doerfer said he knew very little about what NBC had done for his agency. He said he didn't know, for example, about prizes ranging from $18.25 to $32.50 for the girls' bowling league.

"I was aware," the FCC chairman said, "that some of the commissioners received Christmas presents."
